MEDIA INFORMATION

The Baylor Athletics Communications Office appreciates your interest in Baylor Football and looks forward to assisting you during the upcoming season. Our offices are located on the second floor of the Simpson Athletics and Academic Center on South University Parks Drive.

To better assist in your coverage, please take time to read the information found on the ensuing pages in this almanac. These policies have been established in consideration of the media's needs, as well as those of Baylor's student-athletes and coaches to create a positive work environment for all concerned.

If additional information or assistance is required, please contact Brent Ingram, Assistant AD for Communications, or another member of the Baylor Athletic Communications staff. We appreciate your coverage of Baylor Football and look forward to working with you this season.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media outlets interested in covering Baylor football on either a season or single-game basis are requested to submit all applications for credentials through the Baylor Athletics Communications football credential application website: www.baylorbears.com/credentials. Requests made within five days of the game may not be considered.

Credentials will be sent to the visiting school's media relations director for distribution. Credentials can also be picked up in the Athletics Communications Office located at the Simpson Center or on game day at the McLane Stadium media entrance (located near gate B on the northwest corner of McLane Stadium).

Media parking at McLane Stadium is available on a limited basis. Parking information will be included with media credentials. Requests for parking passes should be made along with your credential request well in advance to the Athletics Communications Office.

UNAUTHORIZED CREDENTIAL USE

Credentials will be issued to working media only. Media credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working media is unauthorized. Working media are not permitted to request autographs or take photos with student-athletes or coaches under any circumstance. Media credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked immediately.

WEB-BASED MEDIA

Web-based media from sites affiliated with established, nationally recognized news-gathering organizations are eligible for media credentials.

Credentials will not be granted to any online agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling. Nor will credentials be granted to "fan-submitted" or un-edited sites that are not affiliated with an established news-gathering organization and/or sites whose sole entity is fan-generated message boards that allow the posting of anonymous comments.

MCLANE STADIUM SIDELINES

Baylor follows guidelines set forth by the NCAA Public Relations Committee, the NCAA Football Rules Committee, the American Football Coaches Association and the National Press Photographers Association. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines and must wear photo vests and have credentials visible at all times.

In an effort to promote the best possible working conditions for media photographers, uniformed security personnel will be patrolling the sidelines. Anyone holding a media credential who is not actively involved in coverage of the game will be escorted from the sideline. Similar procedures will be in effect in the press box.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Baylor's locker room is closed to the media at home and on the road. Interviews will be conducted after a cooling-down period, and outside of the originating broadcast network, no interviews will be conducted on the field. At McLane Stadium, the home postgame interview room is located on the service (ground) level directly off the media entrance (elevator lobby) in the Northwest corner of the facility.

Baylor coach Dave Aranda and selected players will be available approximately 15 minutes following the game (video of Aranda will air on pressbox TVs). Baylor University is committed to a policy of equal access for both male and female reporters and photographers.

The visiting team interview room at McLane Stadium is located inside the Southeast ramp from the field on the service (ground) level and the visiting SID will establish visiting locker room admittance policies.

VICE PRESIDENT / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

MACK RHOADES*VICE PRESIDENT / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
ARIZONA, 1993

Mack B. Rhoades, IV, who has provided outstanding leadership and vision for three NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision athletic programs, was named Baylor University's Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics on July 13, 2016.

Rhoades has organized a team of dynamic administrators and restructured the athletics department to maximize efficiencies across teams. His concept of Preparing Champions for Life has provided the ongoing vision for Baylor Athletics, which aims to bolster the student-athlete experience by focusing on the areas of academic achievement, athletic success, character formation and spiritual growth.

In June 2021, Rhoades was selected as Sports Business Journal's 2021 Athletics Director of the Year, marking the second Athletics Director of the Year honor earned by Rhoades in as many years. He was chosen as 2019-20 NACDA Under Armour Athletics Director of the Year in March 2020.

Over his six years in Waco, Baylor has won 25 Big 12 titles and seven national championships.

Baylor continues as one of the most successful athletics departments in the country. Baylor football won the 2021 Big 12 Championship, which marked the first since 2014 and the third in program history. The Bears also won the Sugar Bowl and set a school-record with 12 wins, including five victories over ranked opponents. Head coach Dave Aranda was named the George Munger National Coach of the Year.

Men's basketball won its second-straight Big 12 regular-season title and received a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament under Scott Drew, who has been named Big 12 Coach of the Year for three-consecutive seasons. Women's basketball won its 12th-straight Big 12 regular-season championship and was a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament under first-year head coach Nicki Collen. The Bears became the first team since 2000 to begin Big 12 play 0-2 and win the regular-season title.

Baylor became the first Big 12 school to win a football, men's and women's basketball regular-season championship in the same year and was the first Power Five school to sweep the basketball regular-season titles in back-to-back years.

Academically, Baylor tied a school record with an overall score of 94 in Graduation Success Rate (GSR) that led the Big 12 for an eighth-straight year and was second in the state of Texas in addition to ranking 14th nationally among Power Five schools. The Bears have had a 3.0 term GPA or better for 27-straight semesters.

The 2020-21 academic year, despite the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, brought success for Baylor Athletics as the department combined to bring 20 trophies home to Waco. For the second-consecutive full term (not including the COVID-shortened 2019-20 campaign), the Bears brought home multiple national championships. After acrobatics & tumbling won its fifth-straight title and women's basketball clinched their third overall national championship in 2019, A&T went for six straight in 2020-21 and men's basketball claimed its first in program history.

Men's basketball won its first Big 12 regular-season title and clinched its first conference title since 1950 en route to winning every NCAA tournament game by an average of 15.3 points to claim its first-ever national championship.

Women's basketball brought home its 11th-straight, and 12th overall, Big 12 regular season championship in addition to their 11th Big 12 Championship title, marking the 10th time Baylor swept the regular-season and tournament titles. Women's basketball advanced to the program's 10th Elite Eight, marking the sixth time in seven seasons the Bears have been one of the final eight squads standing.

Baylor had 16 of 19 teams reach the postseason in 2020-21. Acrobatics & tumbling brought home its sixth-straight national championship, and men's tennis advanced to the program's third national championship match and first since 2005. Equestrian upset top-ranked Auburn in the NCEA National Championship and Track and Field had three individual national champions at the same NCAA meet (NCAA Indoor Championships) for the first time in program history.

Overall, Baylor's 11 head-to-head sports compiled a 208-86-3 record (.705 winning percentage) during the 2020-21 academic year as 10 of Baylor's 17 teams finished the term ranked, including six in the top 10. Baylor athletics also brought home six Big 12 titles.

In the midst of the coronavirus pandemic, thanks in large part to the direction of Baylor's athletic medicine staff, the Bears completed 93.3 percent of their scheduled contests.

Rhoades also oversaw the Baylor Bear Foundation as it reported more than $19.5 million in annual giving to Baylor Athletics in 2020, tied for the second-highest giving total in the foundation's 70-plus year history.

The 2018-19 academic year brought several strategic initiatives to the forefront of athletics beginning with December's unveiling of the "Baylor Built" character formation program. The holistic program encompasses character and leadership development, personal skills, social responsibility, community engagement and spiritual growth.

Rhoades, in a collective effort with a team assembled by Jovan Overshown, Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs, launched - in association with NIKE - the "Baylor United" brand and visual identity for the department in April of 2019. The process produced a unified color palette, updated primary and secondary marks, new wordmarks and custom brand font and numerical system.

In May of 2019, as part of the Baylor Athletics Master Plan portion of the university's $1.1 billion "Give Light" campaign, Rhoades announced the department would build a new $105 million basketball fieldhouse following the largest current gift in the university's history. An anonymous lead gift will spearhead the Baylor Basketball Pavilion to provide an electric atmosphere for the department's highly successful basketball programs.

Rhoades has led national searches for five head coaching positions during his time at Baylor, ultimately bringing to Waco, Matt Rhule (Football) in 2016, Casie Maxwell (Equestrian) in 2017, Brian Boland (Men's Tennis) in 2018, Dave Aranda (Football) in 2020, Nicki Collen (Women's Basketball) in 2021 and Michelle Lenard (Soccer) in 2021. He promoted long-time assistant Michael Ford to head coach of the Baylor Track and Field program in 2021. He also promoted Michael Woodson to head coach during the Men's Tennis team's postseason run to a national runner-up finish in 2021.

The Bears remain committed to giving back, with student-athletes volunteering more than 5,500 hours throughout the Waco community in the last three academic years. The football, men's and women's basketball teams each adopted local elementary schools during the school term where student-athletes would read to classes either virtually or in person.

While mission trips were put on hold for the 2020-21 term due to the pandemic, more than 100 student-athletes participated in spiritual growth opportunities on campus. Previously, Baylor's Sports Ministry Team traveled to share the love of Christ internationally for 12 consecutive years.

Rhoades joined the Baylor family from the University of Missouri, where he spent the previous year (2015-16) leading the 20-sport Southeastern Conference intercollegiate athletics department, and he previously served in similar capacities at the University of Houston (2009-15) and the University of Akron (2006-09).

His first year in Columbia saw Mizzou student-athletes register the highest one-semester grade-point in school history at 3.03 for the fall 2015 term; Barry Odom hired as the Tigers' head football coach; wrestler J'den Cox win an NCAA title and earn a berth on the 2016 U.S. Olympic Team; the Tigers' men's swimming and diving team place a program-best eighth at the NCAA Championship and its women's basketball program return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2006. Bolstered by three top 11 NCAA finishes--wrestling (sixth), men's swimming and diving (eighth) and women's swimming and diving (11th), Missouri finished 43rd in the final 2015-16 Learfield Directors' Cup standings.

Rhoades and his staff developed a student-athlete enrichment program, Mizzou Made: Preparing Champions for Life. This innovative and comprehensive program is part of a campus community partnership focusing on life skills and career development among other core values.

Before moving to Missouri, Rhoades enjoyed five-and-a-half rewarding years guiding the athletic fortunes at the University of Houston as Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics. He reignited the Cougars' entire program, hiring 14 new head coaches, including 2015 FWAA First-Year Coach of the Year Tom Herman. Rhoades also oversaw a transformation of the student-athlete experience while also directing marked improvements in the areas of academics, facilities, fundraising and athletic success. In nearly every academic measurement, including grade-point average and the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, Houston registered record achievements. He also unveiled the Cougar Pride Leadership Academy to equip student-athletes with life-long leadership and life skills.

Houston's football team appeared in four bowl games during Rhoades' six seasons, and enjoyed a historic 2011 campaign which saw it climb to No. 6 in the BCS standings en route to a 13-1 record and its first season-ending finish in The Associated Press Top 25 since 1990.

Known as an outstanding fundraiser, Houston raised nearly $100M and constructed $160M in new facilities during his tenure, including a new on-campus football stadium, a men's and women's basketball training center, a golf academy and a short game facility. Rhoades also negotiated one of the nation's top five facility naming rights agreements at the collegiate level and secured a new multi-media rights deal for Houston. Cougar Pride, Houston Athletics' fundraising arm, set an annual donation record for the fifth-consecutive year in 2013-14 as more than 3,100 Cougar Pride members contributed $4.5M to eclipse the previous mark of $3.5M set the previous year.

Rhoades and University of Houston President Dr. Renu Khator successfully steered the institution into an exciting new era when it was invited in December 2011 to join The American Athletic Conference beginning with the 2013-14 academic year. Houston's first year in The American was arguably one of the finest in school history, as its 2013-14 teams combined for 157 victories, 17 American individual championships, 10 NCAA postseason berths and a pair of American team titles. That successful surge led to Houston's highest national finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 2000-01.

Rhoades served as chair of the American Athletic Conference Athletics Directors Committee, Athletics Directors Executive Committee and Athletics Directors Finance Committee after having served Conference USA as chairperson for its Championship and Site Selection Committees.

Prior to his arrival at Houston, Rhoades helped the University of Akron achieve unprecedented academic and athletic success. During his tenure, Zip student-athletes earned: 765 total Dean's List honors, 213 All-Conference honors, 83 Academic All-Conference awards, 20 team championships, 14 Conference Player of the Year awards and 12 All-America honors.

Rhoades' Akron tenure was also marked by the construction of a $61.6M on-campus football stadium, the creation of a women's golf program, three-time recognition for the department's diversity strategy and the hiring of 11 head coaches. UA student-athletes also generously gave back the community during Rhoades' tenure providing more than 5,000 service hours to the greater Akron area during each of the 2006-07 and 2007-08 academic years.

He served as a member of the NCAA Division I Championships/ Sports Management Cabinet--as well as its Administrative Committee, and led the Mid-American Conference External Affairs Committee. Rhoades also helped then-MAC Commissioner Rick Chryst negotiate an unprecedented TV contract for the league with ESPN.

Rhoades went to Akron after seven years at UTEP, where he worked his way up the department ranks to become the Miners Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director after starting as Assistant Athletics Director for Development. In his final position at UTEP, Rhoades oversaw all fundraising, the marketing and media relations offices as well as football external operations, men's basketball, men's golf, licensing, Miner Athletic Club and the athletics ticket office.

Rhoades, who holds a bachelor's degree in health sciences from the University of Arizona (1993) and a master's of science degree in athletics administration/sports management from Indiana University (2002), began his intercollegiate athletics career as a marketing assistant in the Yale athletic department (1996) and worked in development at Marquette (1997-98) before joining the UTEP staff in 1998.

Mack and his wife, Amy, have three daughters - Nicolette (husband, Christian Santillán), Natalie (husband, Andrew Charbine and son, Gerard) and Noelle (husband, Mason Schlotzhauer).

DAVE ARANDA
HEAD COACH (3RD SEASON)
CAL LUTHERAN, 1999

A 2020 National Champion and 26-year coaching veteran, Dave Aranda was named the 28th head coach in Baylor Football history on Jan. 16, 2020.

Aranda (uh-RAN-duh) came to Waco after four seasons as associate head coach and defensive coordinator at LSU, including a 2020 National Championship and a 2019 SEC Championship. Widely considered one of the top defensive minds in football, Aranda has a track record of producing NFL-ready players.

In just his second season in Waco, Aranda led Baylor to a third Big 12 Championship and the biggest bowl win in program history, a 21-7 Sugar Bowl victory over Ole Miss. The win was Baylor's first BCS/New Year's Six bowl win in the modern era.

The Bears also won 12 games for the first time in program history, despite being picked to finish eighth in the Big 12 preseason media poll. BU finished the season ranked No. 5 nationally, the highest final ranking in program history.

Following the season's success, Aranda was named the 2021 George Munger Coach of the Year and was a 2021 Coach of the Year finalist for three separate awards, including the Bear Bryant Award, Dodd Trophy and Eddie Robinson Award. He also received Big 12 Coach of the Year honors from the Associated Press.

In 2021, Aranda's Bears tied for the best turnaround in college football, boasting a ten-win improvement from the previous year, including a school-record five wins against ranked opponents.

The turnaround was spurred by complementary football, spearheaded by a defense that held every opponent to 30-points or fewer, one of just three teams in the country to accomplish the feat. Under the direction of Aranda and defensive coordinator Ron Roberts, the defense punctuated their dominant season with an Allstate Sugar Bowl-record 10-sacks, while linebacker Terrel Bernard tied a Sugar Bowl record with 20 tackles. On average, the BU defense held opponents 13.2 points per game below their season average.

Under the guidance of Aranda and first-year offensive coordinator Jeff Grimes, Baylor's offense ranked 10th nationally with 5.37 yards per rush. BU increased its rushing production by 142% from 2020, raising its rushing average from 90.3 yards per game (123rd nationally) to 219.3 yards per game (10th nationally). Additionally, Baylor ranked inside the nation's top-15 in fewest sacks allowed. Baylor running back Abram Smith also set program records with nine 100-yard rushing games in a single season along with the single-season rushing record (1,601).

In 2021, Baylor had seven players named to the All-Big 12 first- and second-teams, including four individual award winners in Jalen Pitre (Defensive Player of the Year), Trestan Ebner (Special Teams Player of the Year), Connor Galvin (Offensive Lineman of the Year) and Siaki Ika (Defensive Newcomer of the Year). Additionally, Pitre was one of three finalists for the 2021 Jim Thorpe Award, honoring the nation's top defensive back.

Three different Bears earned seven All-America honors from the five publications that make up the NCAA's consensus teams, highlighted by Pitre's four first-team accolades and one second-team recognition. Jacob Gall (second-team) and Galvin (third-team) were also recognized.

In his first season at Baylor, Aranda's program featured his first player earning All-America honors, with Trestan Ebner being selected to four different All-America teams. Additionally, Ebner was named Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year, and nine players were selected to the All-Big 12 team highlighted by first-team defensive back Jalen Pitre.

In six seasons as a defensive coordinator at a Power 5 Conference school, Aranda's defenses ranked in the Top 12 nationally in total yards five times. His defenses also ranked among the top 10 in scoring four of his final seven years. Since taking over as the defensive coordinator at Utah State in 2014 through his last season at LSU in 2019, Aranda's defenses allowed a touchdown or less in 48 of 108 games.

Over LSU's final five games of the 2019 season, including the SEC Championship and College Football Playoff, the Tigers allowed only 18 ppg with wins over No. 3 Clemson, No. 4 Oklahoma, No. 4 Georgia, Texas A&M, and Arkansas. In that stretch, the Tigers' defense allowed only 295.0 yards per game and intercepted six passes.

In his four years as defensive coordinator with the Tigers from 2016-19, Aranda had 18 of his players selected in the NFL Draft, including first-round picks K'Lavon Chaisson (2020), Patrick Queen (2020), Devin White (2019), Tre'Davious White (2017) and Jamal Adams (2017). In addition to the draft picks, eight more of Aranda's LSU defenders have made NFL rosters as free agents. From 2010-15, Aranda had six defenders drafted from stops at Hawai'i, Utah State, and Wisconsin.

During his stay at LSU, the Tigers increased their win total each season and produced a 42-11 overall mark. Seven players earned first-team All-America, and 11 achieved first-team All-SEC status under Aranda. All-America honorees include first-team selections Derek Stingley, Jr. (2019), Grant Delpit (2018-19), Devin White (2018), Greedy Williams (2018), Tre'Davious White (2016), and Jamal Adams (2016).

Led by 2019 Thorpe Award winner Delpit, LSU's defense ranked No. 2 in the SEC in sacks (37.0), tackles for loss (96.0), and turnover margin (+10) while completing a perfect 15-0 record. The Tigers ranked No. 6 nationally and led the SEC, allowing third-down conversions only 29.6 percent of the time. LSU's 17 interceptions ranked No. 5 in the nation and led the SEC.

Aranda pupil Jacob Phillips was the 2019 SEC leader with 113 tackles, the second consecutive season an LSU linebacker led the league in stops following Devin White in 2018.

White, a player Aranda groomed for three years, became LSU's first Butkus Award winner in 2018. He capped his LSU career by earning consensus All-America honors on his way to becoming the highest-drafted linebacker in school history.

Under Aranda's direction from 2016-19, LSU ranked in the top five in most defensive categories in the SEC. The Tigers led the SEC in interceptions from 2018-19, along with ranking in the top three in rushing defense and sacks three times between 2016-19. His defensive unit has also ranked in the top five in passing defense and total defense in three of those four seasons, along with top four in scoring defense twice in that period.

In his first two seasons in Baton Rouge, Aranda's defense allowed a mere 20 passing touchdowns, with the 11 allowed in 2017 tying for fifth nationally. In his first season in 2016, LSU's defense had one of its best-ever performances as the unit finished the season ranked among the top three in the SEC in four major defensive categories, a feat not accomplished since 2006. It allowed the fewest total touchdowns (16) nationally and fewest touchdowns per game (1.3). The defense ranked fifth nationally in scoring with 15.8 points allowed per game and 10th in total yards allowed (314.4 yards per game). The Tigers held nine of 12 opponents to one touchdown or less, and only one opponent scored more than two offensive touchdowns. Individually, linebacker Arden Key broke the school record for sacks in a season with 12.

Prior to joining LSU, Aranda served as defensive coordinator at Wisconsin, where he led a Badgers unit that in a combined three-year span, ranked in the top five in the nation in the four major defensive categories – scoring, total yards, passing yards and rushing yards.

From 2013-15, Aranda's defense at Wisconsin allowed an average of 289.4 yards per game – which ranked first in the nation over that span. His defense allowed 16.9 points (No. 2 nationally), 179.9 passing yards (No. 3 nationally) and 109.6 rushing yards (No. 4 nationally) over the three years, a stretch that saw Wisconsin post a 30-10 record, reach the Big Ten title game in 2014 and play in two New Year's Day bowl games.

Aranda's 2015 defense capped the regular season leading the nation in points allowed at 13.1 points a contest. Wisconsin ranked No. 3 in the nation in total defense (268.5 yards per game), No. 4 in rushing defense (95.4 yards per game) and No. 7 in passing defense (173.2 yards per game).

Aranda spent the 2012 as defensive coordinator at Utah State where he helped the Aggies to a school record 11 wins. He oversaw an Aggies defense that ranked No. 7 in the country in scoring defense, allowing just 15.4 points per game.

In addition to scoring defense, Utah State also ranked among the top 15 nationally in sacks (eighth), pass efficiency defense (10th), rush defense (12th) and total defense (15th). The Aggies finished No. 3 nationally in red zone scoring defense (63.6 percent).

Aranda spent four years at Hawai'i from 2008-11, the last two as the Warriors' defensive coordinator after coaching the defensive line his first two seasons. During the 2011 season at Hawai'i, Aranda's defense led the Western Athletic Conference and was tied for 15th in the FBS in sacks with 35.

In 2010, Aranda's Hawai'i defense led the nation in turnovers caused (38), while ranking second in the nation in interceptions (23) and ninth in fumbles recovered (15), as well as tying the school record for most defensive touchdowns with five.

Prior to Hawai'i, Aranda coached at Delta State University in 2007, where he served as co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. Following the season, he spent one month as defensive coordinator at Southern Utah before being asked to join the Hawai'i staff.

In one year at Delta State, Aranda helped the school win the Gulf South Conference and lead NCAA Division II in pass efficiency defense, ranking second in total and scoring defense, and third in run defense.

Before Delta State, Aranda spent two years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at his alma mater, California Lutheran, where the Kingsmen led the conference in scoring defense and total defense. It was his second go-around with California Lutheran after serving as an assistant from 1996-99, while finishing his degree.

Aranda spent five seasons in the state of Texas including a stint as linebackers coach at Houston (2003-04) and as a graduate assistant at Texas Tech (2000-02).

After he graduated from Redlands High School in California in 1994, numerous surgeries followed and ended his playing career. In 1995, he started his coaching resume at Redlands as an assistant coach. Aranda graduated from California Lutheran in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in philosophy. In 2002, he earned his master's degree in interdisciplinary studies at Texas Tech.

Aranda and his wife, Dione, have two daughters, Jaelyn and Jordyn, and a son, Ronin.

JEFF GRIMES*OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / TIGHT ENDS
UTEP, 1991

Jeff Grimes serves as Baylor's offensive coordinator and tight end coach. He joined Dave Aranda's staff in January 2021. A 29-year coaching veteran, Grimes made an instant splash in Waco as he was one of five assistant coaches up for the Frank Broyles Award, which honors the nation's top assistant, for a second-straight season.

In 2021 Grimes, a native of Garland, Texas, brought his "RVO" philosophy to Waco. The "Reliable Violent Offense" is an attacking, multiple-formation offense that runs a few plays in many ways with as much misdirection as any team in the country.

Under his guidance, the Bears' offense ranked 10th nationally with 5.37 yards per rush and 30th nationally with 6.32 yards per play. BU increased its rushing production by 129 yards per game over the 2020 season, raising its rushing average from 90.3 yards per game (123rd nationally) to 219.3 yards per game (10th nationally).

Grimes also helped Baylor senior running back Abram Smith to a monster senior year, ranking among the nation's best in yards per carry (14th, 6.23), total rushing (5th, 1,601), and rushing touchdowns (tied for 39th, 12). Ben Sims (361 yards, 6 TDs) and Tyquan Thornton (948 yards, 10 TDs) each had career years for the Bears as well.

Offensive Lineman Connor Galvin was named the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year. Smith and Sims made their way onto the All-Big 12 Second Team, while Gerry Bohanon (QB), Jacob Gall (OL), Xavier Newman-Johnson (OL), Sims (TE) and R.J. Sneed (WR) made All-Big 12 Honorable Mention.

Prior to coming to Baylor, Grimes directed a high-powered offense at BYU in 2020 that finished its season ranked in the top-15 of 10 different statistical categories, including scoring (3rd, 43.5 ppg), total offense (7th, 522.2 ypg) and passing offense (8th, 332.1 ppg).

With Grimes at the helm, the 2020 BYU Cougars tied for the national lead in yards per play at 7.84, and led all of FBS in plays of 30 or more yards with 45. Overall, BYU scored 40 or more points nine times in 12 games.

Under Grimes' leadership, BYU quarterback Zach Wilson was named a finalist for the Heisman Trophy and Manning Award, as well as a semifinalist for the Walter Camp Player of the Year, the Maxwell Award and the Davey O'Brien Award. In 2020, Wilson passed for 3,692 yards, 33 touchdowns and posted a 196.4 passing efficiency. He finished the year ranked in the top-10 nationally in 11 offensive categories.

Led by All-American offensive lineman Brady Christensen, the BYU offensive line allowed only 12 sacks in 12 games, the eighth-best per game average in the country, and helped the Cougars to the fourth-most rushing touchdowns nationally with 34. Running back Tyler Allgeier rushed for 1,130 yards, the ninth-best total in BYU history and the eighth-best total by a FBS player for the season.

Overall, BYU had four offensive players named to All-America teams in 2020, including Wilson, Christensen, and wide receiver Dax Milne. Additionally, freshman tight end Isaac Rex earned Freshman All-America honors from The Athletic. Wilson (1st round, No. 3 overall, New York Jets), Christensen (3rd round, Carolina) and Milne (7th round, Washington) were each selected in the 2021 NFL Draft.

In addition to his time as a coordinator, Grimes has extensive experience as one of the country's top offensive line coaches. Since 2000, 17 offensive linemen that played under Grimes have been selected in the NFL Draft including three first rounders (Levi Jones, Nate Solder and Greg Robinson).

He served as offensive line coach and run game coordinator at LSU from 2014-17. While in Baton Rouge, Grimes had three of his players selected in the NFL Draft to go along with nine earn All-SEC honors and four be selected as All-Americans (La'el Collins, Vadal Alexander, Ethan Pocic and Will Clapp).

LSU's offensive line helped pave the way for four consecutive 1,000-yard rushers in each of Grimes' four seasons. In 49 games as LSU's offensive line coach and run game coordinator, the Tigers had at least one running back reach the 100-yard rushing mark 34 times.

He spent one season as run game coordinator and offensive line coach at Virginia Tech in 2013 following four seasons as offensive line coach at Auburn from 2009-12 that included the program's second National Championship in 2010.

During Auburn's 2010 national championship season, Grimes' coached an offensive line that helped set school records for total yards of offense (6,989) and points (577) for a second consecutive season. The Tigers were No. 5 nationally in rushing yards per game (284.8) and led the SEC in scoring (41.2). Auburn's 2010 team set school records for rushing touchdowns (41), passing touchdowns (31), rushing yards (3,987) and had three offensive linemen earn individual honors.

Grimes also had successful stints leading the offensive lines at Colorado (2007-08), BYU (2004-06), Arizona State (2001-03) and Boise State (2000). He got his start in collegiate coaching at Hardin-Simmons (1998-99), and also served as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M (1996-97) and Rice (1995). Following the completion of his playing career he coached at Riverside High School in El Paso (1993-94).

Grimes earned his bachelor's degree in education from UTEP in 1991 and a master's degree in education administration from Texas A&M in 1997. He and his wife, Sheri, have four children, daughters, Bailey and Jada, and sons, Garrison and Greydon.

RON ROBERTS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / INSIDE LINEBACKERS
UT MARTIN, 1990

Ron Roberts, a 31-year coaching veteran, enters his third season as Baylor's defensive coordinator in 2022. He joined the program on Jan. 21, 2020, following two seasons as defensive coordinator at Louisiana. In addition to his role as defensive coordinator, he coaches the inside linebackers.

In 2021, Roberts' defense helped BU to one of the most successful seasons in program history, capturing the program's third Big 12 Title and it's first BCS/New Year's Six bowl win in the modern era.

The 2021 Bears defense buoyed Baylor's success, leading the conference in interceptions (19), turnovers gained (27), turnover margin (0.93) and defensive touchdowns (3). Additionally, BU finished second in the Big 12 run defense (118.4 ypg), scoring defense (18.3 PPG), pass efficiency defense (121.54) and sacks per game (3.14).

Baylor's defense was one of just three units in the country to limit every opponent to 30-points or fewer. En route to the Big 12 title, BU held Oklahoma to its lowest scoring (14) and yardage (260) outputs in 5 years under Lincoln Riley. Baylor became the first Big 12 team to hold OU without a passing TD since Nov. 22, 2014, which snapped a 65-game streak for the Sooners.

Roberts' defense punctuated its impressive season with a dominant showing against Ole Miss in the Sugar Bowl. The Bears held the Rebels' high-powered offense to just seven points, which was 28.9 points below their season average. Its 10 sacks were a Sugar Bowl record, as was Al Walcott's 96-yard interception return for a touchdown.

In 2020, Roberts' first season leading Baylor's defense, the unit finished second in the Big 12 Conference allowing only 203.0 passing yards per game and third with 17 forced turnovers. The Bears were second in the league with 12 interceptions, and allowed only 32 plays of 20+ yards on the year, the second fewest in the Big 12.

Longtime associates, Baylor head coach Dave Aranda served as defensive coordinator under Roberts at Delta State in 2007.

Roberts came to Waco from Louisiana-Lafayette where he has coordinated the defense since 2018. Under his leadership, the Ragin' Cajuns led the Sun Belt Conference and ranked 18th nationally in scoring defense in 2019 allowing only 19.7 ppg, an improvement of 87 spots in the rankings and a difference of -14.5 ppg.

Overall, UL finished second in the Sun Belt in total defense (371.8 ypg) and had the league's top red zone defense (51.16 percent) with only 22 touchdowns allowed in 43 attempts. His defense held opponents to a Sun Belt-leading 197.7 passing yards per game (No. 21, NCAA).

In two seasons at Louisiana, he had nine defenders earn All-Sun Belt honors. The program made two consecutive Sun Belt Conference championship game appearances and won a school-record 11 games in 2019 including a 27-17 bowl victory over Miami (Ohio).

Prior to joining Louisiana, he served as the head coach as Southeastern Louisiana. During his time at the helm of the SLU football program, Roberts led the Lions to two conference championships with a 42-29 overall record and a 35-14 Southland Conference mark.

The Lions won their second-straight Southland Conference championship in 2014, sharing the regular season title with Sam Houston State, following that season the Lions placed 16 players on the 2014 All-Southland Conference teams.

SUPPORT STAFF

Under Roberts, the 2013 Lions won their first-ever Southland Conference championship and their first league title of any kind since 1961. Southeastern finished with an 11-3 overall record and 7-0 mark in league play, earning its first-ever FCS playoff berth and the No. 4 national seed. The single-season school record victory total propelled the Lions to a No. 6 ranking in the final FCS Coaches and Sports Network polls. The 2013 squad had a school record 24 All-Southland Conference players.

Prior to SLU, Roberts spent five seasons at the helm of Division II Delta State where he led the Statesmen to a 47-16 record, four 10-win seasons and two NCAA Super Region II titles that included an appearance in the 2010 NCAA Division II national championship game and the 2011 semifinals.

A native of Visalia, Calif., Roberts led DSU to an 11-3 record in 2011. The Statesmen led the GSC and finished 12th nationally with 463.7 yards per game while ranking 21st nationally in passing offense (282.7). DSU, which was ranked No. 1 nationally in the Division II polls for much of the season, paced the GSC in seven categories including total offense, scoring offense (33.4), total defense (336.6) and rushing defense (134.1).

In 2010, the Statesmen averaged 31.9 points and 452.9 yards of total offense per game. That combination propelled the Statesmen to an 11-4 overall record and a 6-2 mark in GSC play; giving the Statesmen a share of the GSC title for the third time in four years.

Roberts spent two seasons as defensive coordinator at DSU under former coach Rick Rhoades before becoming the school's 17th head coach in 2007.

The successes of 2007 continued into 2008, where the Statesmen finished the season ranked second in the GSC (471.9 ypg) and sixth nationally.

Prior to joining the DSU staff, Roberts served one season as head coach at Mount Whitney (Calif.) HS, and the 2003 season as defensive coordinator at Texas State.

Roberts spent five seasons as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Tusculum College (1998-2002). Prior to joining the Tusculum staff, Roberts served as an assistant coach at Greensboro College in 1998 and was head coach at Burroughs High School (1994-96) in California.

Roberts is married to the former Didi Walker of Germantown, Tenn. The couple are the parents of three children; Reed, Reilly, and Ryan.

DALLAS BAKER
ASSISTANT COACH / WIDE RECEIVERS
FLORIDA, 2006

Dallas Baker joined Dave Aranda’s staff as a wide receivers coach in February of 2022 with seven years of experience as a wide receivers coach.

Prior to his arrival in Waco, Baker spent a season as the wide receivers coach at the University of Buffalo under head coach Maurice Linguist. Under Baker’s guidance, Buffalo Wide Receiver Quian Williams finished in the top ten of the Mid-American Conference with 63 catches. Williams and fellow wideout Dominic Johnson averaged over 13 yards per catch which were top-15 in the conference among players with at least 30 catches.

Before joining Linguist and the Bulls, Baker coached wide receivers for four seasons at Marshall University. In 2020, the Herd had four wide receivers with at least 18 catches, which was more than any other team in Conference USA.

In 2017 and 2018, he helped Marshall receiver Tyre Brady earn first-team All-Conference USA honors. Brady’s stellar seasons led to him signing a free-agent contract in the NFL. As a senior in 2018, Brady led the team in receiving (1,002 yards) for a second-straight season and became the first Herd player to eclipse 1,000 yards since 2014. Brady joined an exclusive list of players who have led the team in receiving consecutive years, joining the likes of Marshall legend Randy Moss. Wide receiver Marcel Williams also earned honorable mention All-Conference-USA in back-to-back seasons.

Baker got his start in coaching as the wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator at Warner University in Lake Wells, Fla. From 2015-16.

Baker was a standout receiver at the University of Florida from 2003-06. With the Gators, he earned first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors as a senior after notching career-highs in receptions (60), receiving yards (920), and receiving touchdowns (10). He helped Florida to an SEC title and a win in the 2007 BCS National Championship.

Upon graduating from Florida in 2006 with a bachelor’s degree in health and human performance, Baker was drafted in the seventh round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers.

He played three seasons with the Steelers (2007-09) and won a Super Bowl with the organization following the 2008 season.

Baker continued his pro career with the Jacksonville Sharks of the Arena Football League for the 2010 season. He then played for the CFL’s Montreal Alouettes and Saskatchewan Roughriders in 2011.

Baker was born in New Smyrna Beach, Florida, where he was a star wide receiver for New Smyrna Beach High School. In 2001, he set the single-season school record with 17 touchdowns, 67 catches, and 1,142 yards.

SHAWN BELL
ASSISTANT COACH / QUARTERBACKS
BAYLOR, 2006

Former Baylor great Shawn Bell joined the football staff in December 2016. He currently serves as quarterback coach.

After serving as an offensive analyst in 2017, he was elevated to offensive line coach in March 2018. He moved to tight ends under new head coach Dave Aranda for the 2020 season, and was named quarterbacks coach in January 2021. He was named to Dave Campbell's Texas Football 40 Under 40 list in June 2021.

In his first season at the helm of the quarterback room, Bell helped Gerry Bohanon finish with the season with 27 total touchdowns, which tied for the second-most in the Big 12 and earned him a spot on the All-Big 12 Honorable Mention team. Bohanon was also named a semifinalist for the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award.

After Bohanon went down with a hamstring injury, Bell helped redshirt freshman Blake Shapen guide the team to a pair of wins in Bohanon's absence, including the Big 12 Championship game. Against Oklahoma State, Shapen went 23-for-28 for 180 yards and 3 touchdowns, including a Big 12 Championship and AT&T Stadium college record 17-straight completions in the first half. Shapen was named the Big 12 Championship's Most Outstanding Performer.

With Bell serving as the tight ends coach in 2020, Ben Sims recorded the most touchdowns by a Baylor tight end since 2007. Sims finished the season with 14 receptions for 164 yards and three touchdowns in only six games.

The former record-setting Baylor quarterback returned to his alma mater following 10 seasons on the sidelines at the high school level, the last eight as head coach at Cedar Ridge, Magnolia West and Clifton.

Bell spent the 2016 season at Cedar Ridge High School in Round Rock, Texas, where he was named District 13-6A Coach of the Year after leading the Raiders to an 11-1 mark and the school's first-ever district championship.

From 2010 to 2015, Bell was head coach at Magnolia West High School in Magnolia, Texas. He led the Mustangs to the postseason every year and compiled a six-year record of 44-27.

His first head coaching stint was in 2009 at Clifton (Texas) High School. In 2008, Bell worked under his father, central Texas coaching icon and long-time China Spring head coach Mark Bell, on the CSHS staff. He began his coaching career in 2007 working with the wide receivers at Stony Point High School in Round Rock.

Bell rewrote the passing records during his time as Baylor's quarterback from 2003-06, owning 28 school records at the conclusion of his career. His 5,666 career yards and 38 career TDs currently stand as the fifth most all-time.

He was a 2006 All-Big 12 honorable mention selection following his senior season. Bell's legacy includes an unforgettable Baylor highlight when he threw consecutive completions to Dominique Zeigler for a touchdown and game-winning 2-point conversion in overtime to defeat No. 16 Texas A&M, 35-34, in 2004 in only his third career start.

Bell also was a 2006 NFF National Honor Society selection, two-time Baylor Dean's list recipient, two-time first-team Academic All-Big 12 honoree and eight-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll. He graduated in May 2006 with a degree in education and earned a master's degree in sports management in 2007.

A native of nearby China Spring, Bell was an all-state QB under his father at China Spring High School and finished his prep career ranked third all-time in Texas history with 8,437 passing yards. He and his wife Hali are the parents of two sons, Cannon and Braxton, and a daughter, Saydi.

KEVIN CURTIS
ASSISTANT COACH / CORNERBACKS
TEXAS TECH, 2002

Kevin Curtis joined the Baylor Football staff in February 2021. He serves as cornerbacks coach.

In his first season in Waco, Curtis' defensive backs were part of a defensive unit that led the Big 12 and finished third nationally with 19 interceptions. Additionally, BU ranked second in the Big 12 and 26th nationally in pass efficiency defense with a rating of 121.54.

Cornerback Al Walcott finished second on the team with three interceptions, including a Sugar Bowl record 96-yard return for a touchdown, which also ranked as the second-longest return in Baylor history. Curtis also helped cornerback Kalon Barnes develop into a seventh-round draft pick of the Carolina Panthers in the 2022 NFL Draft.

Curtis, who played safety at Texas Tech while Baylor head coach Dave Aranda was a member of the Red Raider coaching staff from 2000-01, joined the SMU program as cornerbacks coach in January 2018 after two seasons in the same capacity at Louisiana Tech. While in Dallas, he mentored Brandon Crossley to a national ranking of eighth in total interceptions with four in 2020, including picks in three consecutive games.

SMU corner Brandon Stephens registered a team-high 11 passes defended in 2020, which led the American Athletic Conference. He was selected to play in the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl and invited to the 2021 NFL Combine. Stephens was selected in the third round of the 2021 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens.

Curtis' unit helped SMU to 21 takeaways in 2019, which ranked fourth in the conference. He mentored transfer running back turned defensive back Stephens, who started all 13 games for the Mustangs and finished second in the league with 12 pass breakups. Ar'mani Johnson also had a breakout season, finishing third in the conference with 11 PBUs.

In his second stint at Louisiana Tech from 2016-17, Curtis' cornerbacks helped the Bulldogs to back-to-back bowl wins.

From 2013-15, Curtis mentored defensive backs at his alma mater Texas Tech. The 2015 season saw the Red Raiders register 25 takeaways, 24th nationally, and rank 51st in turnover margin (0.15) before going on to make an appearance in the Texas Bowl. In 2013, Tech finished 8-5 with a victory over Arizona State in the Holiday Bowl.

Curtis' first term at Louisiana Tech (2010-12) saw the Bulldogs rank third in the nation in both interceptions and pick-sixes in 2011, before going on to win nine games in 2012.

Curtis arrived in Ruston after two seasons (2008-09) at Navarro Junior College where he helped the Bulldogs to a 21-2 record and a pair of conference championships. He had his secondary ranked first in the country in interceptions.

A two-time All-American and three-time All-Big 12 safety at Texas Tech, Curtis was selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by San Francisco. Following three seasons with the 49ers, he spent time with the Packers, Raiders, Texans and in NFL Europe before wrapping up a six-year career in professional football.

DENNIS JOHNSON*ASSISTANT COACH / DEFENSIVE LINE
LSU, 2012

Dennis Johnson joined head coach Dave Aranda's football staff in January 2020. He serves as defensive line coach.

Johnson presided over a defensive line that proved to be a real strength of the BU defense in 2021, helping the Bears finish second in the conference in rushing defense (118.4 ypg), scoring defense (18.3 ppg) and sacks (3.14 per game), all of which ranked in the top-17 nationally.

Additionally, the Mississippi native tutored three players who earned All-Big 12 recognition, highlighted by LSU transfer Siaki Ika earning Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year. Cole Maxwell and TJ Franklin also earned All-Big 12 Honorable mention, as that trio combined for 9.5 sacks and 13.5 tackles for loss. Gabe Hall finished second on the team with six sacks, including a three-sack performance against Kansas State, becoming the first player since James Lynch in 2019 to tally three sacks in one game.

Under Johnson's leadership, defensive end William Bradley-King earned All-Big 12 honors in 2020 and was selected to the Senior Bowl. A graduate transfer, Bradley-King tied for the team lead with 3.5 sacks. He was selected in the 2021 NFL Draft by the Washington Football Team.

Since 2017, Johnson has had seven former pupils selected in the NFL Draft.

Johnson, a LSU graduate and member of the school's 2011 Southeastern Conference Championship team, came to Waco following a 2019 season spent as an analyst at LSU. He served from 2016-18 as a full-time coach, first with the outside linebackers (2016-17) before moving to defensive line (2018). He moved off the field in 2019 for medical reasons.

Johnson is also a talented recruiter with an innate ability to land big-time recruits. He has played a pivotal role in LSU's last three signing classes that ranked No. 5 (2019), No. 15 (2018) and No. 7 (2017) nationally.

He was first elevated to a full-time assistant coach in September 2016 where he coached outside linebackers for the final eight games of the season. He was then given the job on a permanent basis when Ed Orgeron was named LSU's head coach in late November.

Johnson, who is affectionately nicknamed "Meatball," is a former LSU defensive lineman who was a member of the Tigers' 13-0 regular season and Southeastern Conference Championship team in 2011.

After graduating from LSU in May of 2012, Johnson got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Northwestern State, where he coached the Demon linebackers. Johnson also spent the 2013 season at Northwestern State where he worked with the secondary.

After a brief stint at Kentucky in 2014, Johnson was lured back to LSU in time for the 2014 season, serving as a graduate assistant working with the defensive line. Johnson remained with the defensive line in 2015, working under Orgeron. Johnson was four games into his second season as a graduate assistant in 2016 when LSU made a head coaching change and thus was elevated to outside linebackers coach.

In 2018, Johnson continued the development of LSU veterans Rashard Lawrence and Breiden Fehoko, while younger players like Glen Logan, Tyler Shelvin and Neil Farrell all emerged as future standouts for the Tigers. Lawrence capped his junior season with four tackles for loss and two sacks in LSU's Fiesta Bowl win over UCF. He was named the defensive MVP for his play in the bowl win over UCF.

In his first year as LSU's outside linebackers coach in 2016, Johnson played a key role in the development of senior Duke Riley, who in his first and only season as a starter for the Tigers, led the team in tackles with 93 and was later selected in the third round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. Riley was also named LSU's most valuable player for the 2016 season and earned a spot in the Senior Bowl.

As a player for the Tigers, Johnson developed into a dependable backup on the defensive line where he played in 19 games in three years. A three-year letter winner for LSU from 2009-11, Johnson joined the Tigers in 2008 after transferring from Itawamba Community College in Mississippi.

Johnson graduated from LSU in May of 2012 with a degree in general studies. Johnson added a Master's degree in Health Promotion and Administration from Northwestern State in 2014.

After converting him from linebacker, Johnson helped Smith lead the Big 12 and finish fifth nationally in rushing yards (1,601). Additionally, Smith finished second in the Big 12 and seventh nationally with 114.4 yards per game, notching 6.23 yards a carry which was also good enough for second in Big 12 and 14th nationally. Johnson joined Baylor following a one-year stint in 2019 as running backs coach at his alma mater, the University of Houston. He helped UH achieve its 18th straight season with at least 1,500 rushing yards in 2019. The Cougars’ rushing attack ranked 37th in FBS, averaging 188.2 yards per contest.

Prior to his time at Houston, Johnson spent three years at Kansas, including serving as wide receivers coach in 2018. He spent the 2016 and 2017 seasons as an offensive analyst.

ASSISTANT COACH / OFFENSIVE LINE
SOUTHWEST BAPTIST, 2011

Eric Mateos joined the Baylor Football staff in January 2021. He serves as offensive line coach.

In his first season leading the Bears O-Line, his crew paved the way for the Big 12's best rushing attack, which averaged 219.3 yards per game for the 10th-best mark nationally. The group also allowed the second-fewest sacks in the conference with just 1.29 per game, helping the unit finish as a Joe Moore Award Semifinalist as one of the best offensive lines in the country.

Under Mateos' guidance, offensive lineman Connor Galvin was named the Offensive Lineman of the Year in the Big 12 in addition to All-Big 12 First Team, All-American First Team (The Athletic) and All-America Third Team (AP) honors. Center Jacob Gall was also named to the All-America Second Team (FWAA), All-Big 12 Second Team (AP) and All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team (Coaches). Xavier Newman-Johnson was the third member of the offensive line unit to garner postseason recognition as an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention performer.

A native of Overland Park, Kansas, Mateos joined Baylor following two successful seasons at BYU from 2019-20. While in Provo, he molded a BYU offensive line that anchored one of the top offenses in the country in 2020. BYU finished its season ranked in the top-15 of 10 different statistical categories including scoring (3rd, 43.5 ppg), total offense (7th, 522.2 ypg) and passing offense (8th, 332.1 ppg).

Led by Consensus All-American tackle Brady Christensen, the BYU offensive line allowed only 12 sacks in 12 games, the eighth-best per game average in the country, and helped the Cougars to the fourth-most rushing touchdowns nationally with 34.

Christensen received 10 All-America honors overall. He finished the 2020 season as the highest-graded offensive tackle in the country by Pro Football Focus with a 96.0 rating, earning grades above 95.0 as both a pass-blocker and run-blocker. He allowed just three pressures across 372 regular-season pass-blocking snaps.

BYU posted an 11-1 record in 2020, including an impressive 49-23 victory over UCF in the Boca Raton Bowl. The Cougars reached as high as No. 8 in the AP poll during the season. BYU tied for the national lead in yards per play at 7.84, and led all of FBS in plays of 30 or more yards with 45. Overall, the program scored 40 or more points nine times in 12 games.

Since 2014, Mateos has coached 13 NFL players including eight draft picks. Most recently, Christensen was selected in the third round of the 2021 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

In 2019, the Cougars finished 7-6 with a Hawaii Bowl berth. Under Mateo's guidance, Christensen and center James Empey earned All-Independent honors from Phil Steele. During the team's final five regular-season games BYU boasted the nation's No. 8 offense (520.6 yards per game), No. 13 passing offense (323.0 yards per game) and No. 34 rushing offense (197.6 yards per game). The Cougars capped the season with 505 yards of total offense in the Hawai'i Bowl, including 274 through the air and 231 on the ground.

Mateos' 2019 offensive line finished the season ranked No. 12 overall as a unit by Pro Football Focus.

Mateos spent two seasons from 2017-18 as the offensive line coach at Texas State where he had an All-Sun Belt performer each of his two years. Prior to his stint with the Bobcats, Mateos served as the tight ends coach at LSU in 2016 after starting the season as an offensive line graduate assistant under Baylor offensive coordinator Jeff Grimes.

Midway through the 2016 season, Mateos was named tight ends coach by Ed Orgeron and helped lead the Tigers to a victory over Louisville in the Citrus Bowl. Before joining Grimes at LSU, Mateos worked under Sam Pittman at Arkansas from 2013-15.

He began his coaching career as an assistant offensive line coach at Southwest Baptist in 2011 before serving a one-year stint in 2012 as the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Hutchinson Community College.

A two-year starter at Southwest Baptist, Mateos was the starting center and team captain in 2009 and 2010. He earned his bachelor's degree in public relations at Southwest Baptist in 2011 and a master's degree from Arkansas in 2015. Mateos is married to the former Gillian Chavez.

RONNIE WHEAT*ASSISTANT COACH / SAFETIES & SPECIAL TEAMS
MILLSAPS, 2008

Ronnie Wheat joined the Baylor Football staff in January in 2022 as the safeties coach and special teams coordinator.

A native of Vancleave, Miss., Wheat came to Waco to join Dave Aranda's staff after two seasons as a full-time assistant at the University of Nevada. He coached linebackers in 2021, helping the Wolfpack lead the country with six defensive touchdowns. They also finished ninth in the country by forcing 26 turnovers on the way to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Quick Lane Bowl.

Under Wheat's guidance in 2021, linebacker Daiyan Henley led the team with 103 tackles and four interceptions. He finished second on the team with three fumble recoveries and also recorded three tackles for loss en route to earning All-Mountain West Conference Second Team honors. Lawson Hall finished second on the team with 89 total tackles and earned All-Mountain West Honorable Mention honors.

In 2020, Nevada hired Wheat to his first full-time assistant role coaching safeties in Reno. Wolfpack safety Tyson Williams finished second in the conference in interceptions as part of a defense that finished third in the Mountain West with six interceptions. Williams also finished second on the team with 56 tackles and earned All-Mountain West Honorable Mention.

Before his time in Reno, Wheat spent seven seasons at LSU as the lead defensive analyst, including four seasons with Dave Aranda when Aranda was the defensive coordinator of the Tigers. Wheat's time on the bayou culminated with a National Championship in 2019, after which he was hired as an assistant at Nevada.

In Wheat's final four seasons at LSU, working with Aranda, the Tigers never finished outside the top-15 in the nation in pass efficiency defense. Additionally, they finished in the top-10 three times (2017, 2018, 2019).

The Tigers had an individual lead the conference in interceptions in each of Wheat's final three seasons with the Bayou Bengals. Andraez Williams had six in 2017, Grant Delpit had five in 2018 and Derek Stingley Jr. had six in 2019.

In his seven seasons in Baton Rouge, the Tigers finished in the top-25 in total defense six times, finishing in the top-15 three times (9th in 2014, 10th in 2016, and 15th in 2013).

Prior to arriving at LSU, Wheat spent five seasons at his alma mater, Millsaps College, where the Majors won four conference championships. He began as a graduate assistant on offense for the Majors in 2008 before moving to the defensive side of the ball as a linebackers coach in 2009 when he was also named recruiting coordinator. In his time at Millsaps, Wheat coached seven all-conference selections and helped Will Hawkins win 2009 SCAC Defensive Player of the Year.

Wheat played both football and baseball at Millsaps. On the football field, he tallied 152 career tackles, 18.0 tackles-for-loss, five interceptions, and 4.5 sacks in 35 career games at linebacker. He was named to the 2007 All-SCAC First Team and 2006 All-SCAC Second Team. He earned his Bachelor's degree in 2008 and his Master's in 2009 from Millsaps.

Wheat and his wife, Tiffany, have a daughter, Ava Lanie, and a son, Weston Hayes.

GAME RECAPS

BAYLOR 29, TEXAS STATE 20

BOBCAT STADIUM • SAN MARCOS, TEXAS

SEPT. 4, 2021 • ATTENDANCE: 26,573

Abram Smith and Trestan Ebner led a rushing attack that racked up the most yards in the Dave Aranda era with 238 against Texas State en route to a season-opening win for Baylor (1-0, 0-0).

The Baylor defense continued its disruptive ways, early, when JT Woods put Baylor in the end zone for the first time in 2021 with a 20-yard interception return for a touchdown, just over three-minutes into the game.

With Baylor trailing 10-7 late in the first half, Abram Smith put the offense in the end zone for the first time in 2021 with a three-yard touchdown run capping a 13-play 75 yard drive, that gave the Bears the 14-10 lead at the half. The score was Smith's first since September 7, 2019, against UTSA.

Freshman Isaiah Hankins connected on his first career field goal with 8:50 to play in the third quarter to stretch Baylor's lead to seven, one of his two field goals on the night. Smith then doubled the lead with his second touchdown of the night from 13 yards out to make it a 24-10 lead.

After a Texas State field goal to make it 24-13 in the 4th quarter, the Baylor defense came up clutch again when Jalen Pitre stepped in front of a Brady McBride pass for his 3rd career interception. Pitre also had five tackles, a pair of those for loss, and a pass breakup to go along with a quarterback hurry.

The Bobcats scored with 1:19 to play to cut the deficit to 27-20, and eventually got the ball back, down by seven with 0:15 seconds to play. But the Baylor defense stood tall one more time forcing a safety on the game's final play. It was the second-consecutive year the Baylor defense forced a safety in the season opener.

The Baylor offense put up 386 yards of offense in quarterback Gerry Bohanon's first career start. Bohanon became just the second quarterback in the last 20 years to lead Baylor to a victory in his first career start in a season opener. The last to do it was Bryce Petty in 2013.

POSTGAME NOTES

- BU is now 80-36-4 all-time in season openers. The Bears have won 12 of their last 13 season openers.
- Trestan Ebner became the first player in Baylor history to eclipse 1,000-yards rushing (1,011) and 1,000-yards receiving (1,225).
- RJ Sneed eclipsed 1,000 career receiving yards (1,083), becoming the 39th player in Baylor history.
- Abram Smith rushed for 118 yards on 19 carries, his career-first 100-yard rushing game.
- Tyquan Thornton (1,340 career receiving yards) passed Kalief Muhammad (1,300) for 23rd on Baylor's all-time receiving yards list.
- Freshman Kicker Isaiah Hankins made his career-first field goal (43 yards) in the 2nd quarter.
- QB Gerry Bohanon, TE Jackson Shupp, OL Gavin Byers, LB Matt Jones and DL Brayden Utley made their first career starts.

BAYLOR 66, TEXAS SOUTHERN 7

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

SEPT. 11, 2021 • ATTENDANCE: 42,461

Baylor (2-0) dominated Texas Southern from the opening drive in its 66-7 win over the Tigers in the home opener at McLane Stadium.

The Bears scored touchdowns on each of their first seven drives of the game and scored on their way to building a 59-0 lead before Texas State eventually found the end zone.

Gerry Bohanon had his best game as a Bear, accounting for five touchdowns in the win, the first Baylor quarterback to accomplish that feat since Seth Russell did it in December of 2016 at West Virginia.

After having a pair of 100-yard rushers against Texas State Baylor took it a step further against Texas Southern with three 100-yard rushers. Abram Smith led the way with 126 yards and two touchdowns. Trestan Ebner eclipsed the century mark for the second-straight week with 125 yards and sophomore Taye McWilliams had his first career 100-yard rushing game with 102 yards and a touchdown. It was the first time Baylor had three 100-yard rushers in a single game since September of 2015.

The Bears boasted their ninth-highest single-game rushing total in program history with 419 on Saturday. It was their largest rushing output since October 1, 2016, at Iowa State (469). 714 total yards was their largest total since December of 2015 when they put up 756 in the Russell Athletic Bowl.

The Baylor defense was suffocating on the night, holding the Tigers to just 281 total yards while senior JT Woods put his defense in the end zone for a second consecutive week with a school-record 97-yard fumble return for a touchdown. With that score, the Bears defense scored touchdowns in consecutive games for the first time since 2013.

POSTGAME NOTES

- This is the first time Baylor has had multiple 100-yard rushers in back-to-back games since Sept. 12 and Sept. 26, 2015 (Shock Linwood, Johnny Jefferson, Terrence Williams vs. Lamar; Linwood & Williams vs. Rice)
- 419 yards on 49 carries averaged out to 9.74 yards per carry, the most for Baylor since September 12, 2008 against Washington State (426 yds on 42 carries for 10.1 yds per carry)
- Trestan Ebner passed Jay Finley for 11th all time on Baylor's career all-purpose yards list (3,173)

GAME RECAPS

BAYLOR 45, KANSAS 7

DAVID BOOTH KANSAS MEMORIAL STADIUM • LAWRENCE, KAN.
SEPT. 18, 2021 • ATTENDANCE: 23,218

The Baylor defense dominated the Kansas Jayhawks in the Big 12 opener, allowing just 166 total yards in a 45-7 win in Lawrence. Kansas' 166 yards were the fewest allowed by a Baylor defense in a Big 12 game and the fewest allowed in any conference game since Baylor held Arkansas to 125 yards in 1990.

The Bears' offense started quickly with an opening-drive touchdown for the second time in as many weeks, capped by Ben Sims' fourth-career touchdown reception to give Baylor the quick 7-0 lead. Baylor's lead ballooned to 14-0 three plays into the second quarter when Gavin Yates plunged in from two yards out, becoming the first Baylor player to score from the fullback position since Jerod Monk in 2009.

Kansas cut Baylor's lead to 14-7 late in the 1st half with an 11-play, 76-yard drive, their longest of the day and the only one resulting in points for the Jayhawks.

After a three-and-out by the Bears' defense to begin the third quarter, the offense wasted no time getting back on the board when Gerry Bohanon found R.J. Sneed for a 69-yard touchdown, Baylor's longest completion since a 78-yarder in the 2019 Big 12 Championship game. Bohanon's second touchdown pass of the game pushed Baylor's lead to 21-7. Abram Smith would find the end zone on the Bears' second drive of the second half becoming the first Baylor running back with a rushing touchdown in each of the first three games to start a season since Shock Linwood in 2014.

The defense continued its dominance in the fourth quarter, allowing just 25 yards to the Jayhawks, while the offense rolled up 17 more points, including a Bohanon touchdown run that helped him climb into the top-10 in career rushing yards by a Baylor quarterback.

Saturday marked a third-straight game where the Baylor defense limited its opponent to under 300 yards of total offense, the second time that has been done by the Bears in the Big 12 era.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Baylor improved to 8-1 in Big 12 openers since 2013 and 12-14 all-time in Big 12 openers.
- Trestan Ebner moved past Tevin Reese for 10th all-time in career all-purpose yards at Baylor (3,286)
- RJ Sneed 69-yard touchdown reception was the longest of his career.
- Sneed became the 21st player in Baylor history with 100-career receptions.
- Abram Smith is the first Baylor running back with 3-straight 100-yard games since Shock Linwood in 2015.
- Ben Sims' 4th career receiving touchdown tied him with Steve Stutsman and Jordan Najvar for 5th-most by a tight end in Baylor history.

BAYLOR 31, 14/14 IOWA STATE 29

McLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

SEPT. 25, 2021 • ATTENDANCE: 42,539

For the second-consecutive meeting in Waco the Bears outlasted Iowa State by two points. This time, it was a 31-29 victory to improve to 4-0 (2-0) on the season.

After an opening-drive touchdown by Iowa State, the Bears responded with an opening-drive touchdown of their own for a third-straight game as Gerry Bohanon found pay dirt with his legs to tie the game at seven.

Baylor took its first lead of the game one play into the second quarter when Bohanon went to the air to find Tyquan Thornton for a 21-yard touchdown connection, upping the Bears' lead to 14-7.

After a Cyclone field goal made it 14-10 Bohanon connected with Ben Sims from 33-yards out, capping a nine-play, 75-yard drive and giving Baylor a 21-10 lead.

The next six points came from the Cyclones as they cut Baylor's lead down to just five at 21-16.

But as the momentum began to shift, Baylor's Trestan Ebner uncorked a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, the third of his career and the fifth-longest in Baylor history to push the Bears back up by 12 to 28-16.

Breece Hall's second touchdown run of the day pulled Iowa State back within five to begin the fourth quarter. With the Cyclones driving early in the 4th quarter, the Baylor defense came up with its biggest play of the day as a tipped pass ended up in the hand of Garmon Randolph for his first-career interception thwarting Iowa State's attempt to take the lead.

Special teams came up big once again late in the 4th quarter when Ebner returned an Iowa State punt 41 yards, deep into Cyclone territory setting up an Isaiah Hankins 34yard field goal that would make it 31-23.

After the Cyclones drove 75 yards in 13 plays to make it 31-29 with 24-seconds left on the clock, JT Woods picked off a Brock Purdy two-point conversion attempt sealing the win for Baylor.

POSTGAME NOTES

- It was Baylor's first win over a ranked opponent since December of 2015 against North Carolina.
- Baylor is now 4-0 for the 6th time in the last nine seasons.

OCT. 2, 2021 • ATTENDANCE: 52,144

Baylor suffered its first loss of the 2021 season on Saturday night in Stillwater with a 24-14 setback against the Cowboys.

The Cowboys struck first on the opening drive when Jaylen Warren scored on an eight-yard touchdown run, capping a 12-play, 75-yard drive to make it 7-0 Cowboys.

From there, the Baylor defense bowed its necks, forcing a pair of interceptions from a couple of seniors in the secondary. The first came from senior Raleigh Texada, followed by JT Woods' second interception of the season and the fifth of his career.

The Pokes pushed their way into the end zone for a second time in the final minute of the first half with a Spencer Sanders 32-yard touchdown toss to Rashod Owens to build their lead to 14-0 at the half.

With both teams exchanging blows in the third-quarter, it was Baylor that struck first in the second half thanks to a 55-yard touchdown run by Abram Smith on fourth-and-two. It was Baylor's second-longest run of the season and the longest of Smith's career.

The first play of the 4th quarter saw Oklahoma State's lead grow to ten after a Tanner Brown 20-yard field goal to make it 17-7.

Baylor responded with its second-longest play of the night, a 44-yard completion from Gerry Bohanon to Tyquan Thornton to get Baylor down to the Cowboys' 21-yard line. ## 18/18/13 BAYLOR 27, 4/4/8 OKLAHOMA 14

MCLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

NOV. 13, 2021 • ATTENDANCE: 46,782

Baylor beat Oklahoma for the first time since 2014 with a dominating 27-14 win over the Sooners Saturday, at McLane Stadium.

The Baylor defense started strong, holding the Sooners scoreless through the first quarter for just the second time all season.

Oklahoma's Caleb Williams got the scoring started in the second quarter with a two-yard run, capping a nine-play, 78-yard drive, resulting in a 7-0 Sooners lead.

Baylor responded with a 10-play 75-yard drive of its own, capped off by Tyquan Thornton's 8-yard touchdown reception, his eighth of the season. Oklahoma's Gabe Brkic missed a 40-yard field goal in the final minutes of the half, sending the Bears and Sooners into the locker room deadlocked at seven.

Isaiah Hankins atoned for a miss earlier in the game by connecting on a 32-yard field goal for the only points of the third quarter, giving Baylor a 10-7 lead with 15 minutes to play.

Two plays into the fourth quarter, senior Abram Smith ripped off the longest run of his career, 75 yards, that took the ball down to the Oklahoma 8-yard line. Three plays later, Gerry Bohanon scored from five yards out to push Baylor's lead to 17-7.

After the Baylor defense forced an Oklahoma punt, the Bears' offense went to work, marching 80 yards in 11 plays and milking 5:50 off of the fourth-quarter clock. The drive was punctuated with a 14-yard Bohanon touchdown run that essentially put the game on ice with 3:57 to play in the game.

Baylor would exchange a late Sooner touchdown with a field goal as time expired to finish off a 27-14 Bears win.

GAME RECAPS

11/11/11 BAYLOR 20, rv/rv/nr KANSAS STATE 10

BILL SNYDER FAMILY STADIUM • MANHATTAN, KAN.

NOV. 20, 2021 • ATTENDANCE: 43,857

Baylor picked up its second Big 12 road win of the season in a 20-10 battle with the Kansas State Wildcats on Saturday at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

The Bears opened the game with a three-and-out but were given new life in enemy territory when Kansas State's Phillip Brooks muffed a punt at the Wildcat 24-yard line. Treستان Ebner made them pay five plays later with a six-yard run to give the Bears the quick 7-0 lead.

The Wildcats tried to be aggressive, attempting a fourth-down conversion at the Baylor 30-yard line, but the KSU defense stood up, turning KSU away empty-handed.

The two sides exchanged a pair of punts to keep the score at 7-0 entering the second quarter. With 11:22 to play in the first half, Baylor embarked on their longest drive of the season, taking 7:21 to go 74 yards on 15 plays and take the 14-0 lead on a Gerry Bohanon two-yard touchdown pass to Drake Dabney.

Kansas State would crack the scoring column with a 65-yard run by running back Deuce Vaughn that cut the Bear lead in half at 14-7.

In the final two minutes of the half, Baylor was driving for points when Bohanon went down after an 11-yard run to the Kansas State 44-yard line. Bohanon left the game and would not return, giving way to redshirt freshman Blake Shapen. He would complete his first four passes, including a 32-yard completion to Drew Estrada on 4th down, that kept the Baylor drive alive. Isaiah Hankins would connect on a 21-yard field goal to push the lead back out to 10 at 17-7 entering the half.

KSU kept it close, taking a Baylor turnover on downs 43 yards in nine plays, ending in a 28-yard field goal by Chris Tennant to make it 17-10.

After Hankins split the uprights with his second field goal of the night, the score was 20-10, but the Wildcats had a chance to keep it close with a 39-yard field goal. Tennant's field goal missed wide, keeping the Baylor lead at 10 points.

With just under 4:00 minutes to play, Baylor junior Al Walcott stepped in front of a Jaren Lewis pass that officially sealed things for the Bears and moved them to 9-2 (6-2) on the season.

9/10/8 BAYLOR 27, TEXAS TECH 24

MCLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

NOV. 27, 2021 • ATTENDANCE: 43,901

Baylor finished unbeaten at home for the third time in the last eight seasons after holding off Texas Tech in a 27-24 thriller Saturday at McLane Stadium.

BU took the opening kickoff and marched 75 yards in three plays, highlighted by Blake Shapen's 61-yard touchdown pass to Treستان Ebner, making it 7-0 in favor of the Bears.

On Tech's ensuing drive, the Baylor defense added to its streak of 20-consecutive games with a turnover after Jaiaron McVea jarred the ball loose from Red Raider running back SaRodrick Thompson. Six plays and 32-yards later, freshman kicker Isaiah Hankins pushed the lead to 10-0 on a 28 yard field goal.

After Texas Tech scored its first points of the game to make it 10-3 Bears, the two defenses traded blows until Abram Smith stretched the Bears' lead to 17-3 on a four-yard touchdown run with 5:01 to play in the half.

The Red Raiders found the end zone with just over a minute to play in the half when Tahj Brooks plunged his way in from one yard out. Baylor led 17-10 at the half.

The BU defense forced a three-and-out to begin the third quarter but the offense could not capitalize when Hankins' 41-yard field goal missed wide left. Both teams were held scoreless in the third quarter, keeping the Red Raiders without a score.

Baylor's lead bounced back to 10 on the foot of Hankins, who connected from 27-yards out to make it 20-10 on the heels of a 16-play drive that took 6:27 off the clock.

Tech responded with a quick five-play drive that ended with a 38-yard touchdown pass from Donovan Wilson to McLane Mannix to pull Tech back within three at 20-17.

Shapen and the Bears mounted a response with a 10-play drive that ended with Ben Sims catching his eighth-career touchdown, the most by a tight end in school history, and Baylor was back in front by 10, 27-17.

After Texas Tech threw a touchdown to tight end Travis Koontz to make it 27-24, the Bears took 5:17 off the clock on a 13-play drive. Facing fourth and three at the Texas Tech 12-yard line, Baylor went for it only to have Shapen's pass broken up and give Texas Tech a chance, trailing 27-24 with 1:18 to play in the game.

Tech took nine plays to get the ball to the Baylor 35 yard line. From there, Jonathan Garibay had a 53-yard field goal that missed wide left to seal the win for the Bears and clinch their sixth 10-win season in the last 11 years, 27-24.

9/9/9 BAYLOR 21, 5/5/5 OKLAHOMA STATE 16

AT&T STADIUM • ARLINGTON, TEXAS

DEC. 4, 2021 • ATTENDANCE: 65,771

Baylor captured its third Big 12 Championship in program history with a thrilling 21-16 win over Oklahoma State in the Big 12 Title game at AT&T Stadium.

After falling behind 3-0, the Baylor defense made its first big play of the day when JT Woods picked off Oklahoma State quarterback Spencer Sanders, taking the ball back to the Oklahoma State 11-yard line.

Three plays later, Baylor's Blake Shapen found a wide-open Ben Sims for the Bears' first touchdown of the day, giving BU a 7-0 lead.

The Bears' defense needed just three more plays before they picked off Sanders again. Matt Jones made a leaping interception at the Cowboys' 37-yard line that set the offense up on OSU's side of the field once again.

In keeping with the theme, the BU offense scored in three plays, capped by a Shapen four-yard touchdown pass to Drew Estrada, pushing the lead out to 11 for the visiting Bears at 14-3.

After both teams traded three-and-outs, the Baylor offense got back on track, driving 47 yards in nine plays, capped by Tyquan Thornton's 13-yard touchdown reception to put Baylor ahead, 21-3.

After Oklahoma State added three more points to cut the lead to 21-6, Baylor had a chance to answer, but the Cowboys blocked Isaiah Hankins' 39-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. BU still led 21-6 at the break.

The defense got things started in the second half with a Jairon McVea interception of Sanders thwarting a Cowboys scoring opportunity.

The Pokes would find the end zone for the first time with just over seven minutes to play in the 3rd quarter to make it 21-13 after three quarters.

OSU had a chance to potentially tie it up with a first-and-goal at the Baylor 1-yard line, but the Bears' defense did not break and forced the Cowboys to kick a 20-yard field goal to make it 21-16.

Trailing by that same score, the Pokes got the ball with 3:23 to play and drove down to the Baylor 6-yard line when a pass interference call against Baylor put the Cowboys at the 2-yard line.

Held out on the first three plays, OSU had fourth-and-goal at the 1. Desmond Jackson took the handoff and raced McVea wide to the pylon, when McVea forced Jackson out just inches shy of the end zone to preserve the Baylor victory, 21-16.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Baylor notched its fourth win over a top-25 opponent on Saturday, its most top-25 wins in a season since 1974.
- BU grabbed a Big 12 Championship-game record four interceptions.
- Quarterback Blake Shapen set a Big 12 Championship and AT&T Stadium (college games) record with 17-straight completions in the first half.
- Shapen became just the fourth quarterback in Big 12 Championship game history to throw for 3 touchdowns in the first half. Vince Young was the last to do it on December 3, 2005 against Colorado.
- Punter Issac Power's 52.6 average sets a new Big 12 Championship Game record, over three yards higher than the previous mark of 49.5 set by Oklahoma's Mike Kneal on December 1, 2007 against Missouri.

6/6/7 BAYLOR 21, 8/8/8 OLE MISS 7

CAESARS SUPERDOME • NEW ORLEANS, LA.

JAN. 1, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 66,479

Baylor clinched the first 12-win season in program history on the strength of a dominant defensive effort in a 21-7 win over Ole Miss in the Allstate Sugar Bowl.

BU set the tone early when safety JT Woods picked off Matt Corral on the Rebels' second play from scrimmage to bring their opening drive to an immediate halt.

Corral and Ole Miss ventured into BU territory for a second time in the first quarter, reaching the Bears' 16-yard line, but a penalty, incomplete pass and back-to-back sacks pushed the Rebs back to the Baylor 32-yard line. The second sack in that series was costly for Ole Miss as Corral left the game with an injury and would not return. Cale Nation attempted a 49-yard field goal that fell short of the crossbar and kept the game scoreless.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Ole Miss defense stopped BU running back Abram Smith on 4th-and-2 from its 40-yard line to set the Rebels up on the plus side of the field.

After driving 28 yards in nine plays, the BU defense stood tall when Al Walcott caught a tipped Luke Altmyer pass and took it 96-yards for the longest interception return in Sugar Bowl history and a 7-0 Baylor lead.

The Bears would take a 7-0 lead into the half, thanks in part to four quarterback sacks and two interceptions.

Ole Miss would scratch the scoreboard on its second drive in the third quarter when Altmyer hit Braylon Sanders for 37 yards to cap a 6-play 72-yard drive and tie the game at seven.

With just under four minutes to play, the BU offense was in the midst of its deepest penetration of the game, reaching the Ole Miss 30-yard line, but Bohanon's only interception of the game gave the Rebels the ball back at their own nine-yard line.

With the game tied at seven, Baylor marched its first drive of the fourth quarter to the Ole Miss 48-yard line, at which time freshman Monaray Baldwin took a jet sweep 48-yards for BU's second touchdown of the game to take a 14-7 lead with 11:14 to play in the game.

The Bears' defense flexed its muscle once again on the ensuing Rebel drive as Woods grabbed his second pick of the game and took the ball back to the OM 15-yard line. Five plays later, Bohanon connected with Tyquan Thornton for a two-yard touchdown that made it 21-7 Bears with 7:24 to play.

The Rebels' final two offensive series' ended with sacks on fourth down as Baylor put the game on ice and secured its first BCS/New Year's six bowl win in the modern era.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Baylor notched its fifth win over a ranked opponent this season, a school record.
- The Bears' 10 sacks set a new Sugar Bowl record.
- Baylor picked off three passes and returned them for a total of 112 yards, which set a new Sugar Bowl record.
- The BU defense held a 13th team below its season scoring average. Mississippi's seven points were 28.9 below their season average.
- Al Walcott's 96-yard interception return for a touchdown was the longest in Sugar Bowl History.
- It was the second-longest interception in program history (99 yards).
- Abram Smith rushed for 177 yards on Saturday, marking his ninth 100-yard game of the season, which set a new school record.

PROGRAM HISTORY

Baylor's football program celebrates its 124th year of existence and its 121st season in 2022. The school has fielded a varsity team each year since 1899, save the 1906, 1943 and 1944 seasons.

Baylor first began playing football in 1899 and started putting together a history that was not all that bad considering the times. Baylor's first five teams all finished with better than .500 records. After 14 years of football, and there was one season (1906) when Baylor did not field a team, the university was on the topside of the scoreboard with an overall mark of 50-44-11 while being tutored by 10 different head coaches. It had not won any conference championships, but then there was no way it could do so; it did not compete in a conference.

However, several outcomes prior to formation of the Southwest Conference should be mentioned by anyone exploring a history of Baylor football.

In that first year of Baylor football, the University's gridiron representatives played TCU to a 0-0 tie. The game was played in Waco and for an excellent reason: both schools were located in Waco. However, TCU in that era was known as "AddRan" College; the school's name was not officially changed to "Texas Christian University" until 1902, and by then the team's nickname was already "Horned Frogs." When the two schools met in 1901, Baylor won a 39-0 victory on Nov. 23 and later that season defeated TCU (or AddRan), 42-9.

TCU finally defeated Baylor for the first time in 1904, 5-0, but in 1907 came the strangest verdict of all. The TCU record book shows a victory for the Frogs, 11-10. But for a number of years the Baylor record book listed that outcome as a victory for Baylor, 10-9. In his history of the Southwest Conference ("Football, Texas Style") published by Doubleday & Company in 1964, Kern Tips, the man widely regarded as the greatest radio voice SWC football ever knew, offered this explanation:

"At issue is whether or not TCU actually tackled a Baylor ball carrier in his own end zone for a safety late in the game. Reports say that the officials disagreed among themselves, as the goal line had disappeared in the dusty action, and were still debating the issue while the teams and spectators went home to supper with their own convictions about the final score."

Another interesting Baylor-TCU outcome (and remember, at this time both institutions were located in Waco; TCU did not move to Fort Worth until 1910 after the school's main building in Waco had burned) came in 1908. TCU had already won the first two games played between the two schools that season. They decided to play a third one on Nov. 26 (Thanksgiving Day). TCU led at halftime, 8-6. Baylor, by then downright hungry for a victory over the Frogs, did an unusual thing. John Fouts, Baylor's star left end, put on blue stockings (blue was then a TCU color) but kept on his Baylor gray jersey. Then, according to the Tips' accounting, "after the second-half kickoff he raced to the sidelines, snatched off his gray jersey and was revealed in a blue one that, like his stockings, matched TCU's uniforms. As he rejoined his mates on the field, it appeared that TCU had provided Baylor with its 11th man.

"TCU objected; Baylor's captain Babe Gantt smilingly observed there was no law against it, and demurred. With its 'wild card' from the coloring book in the game, Baylor rallied to win the game, 23-8, amid what was reported to be 'bitterness and confusion' on the part of the TCU team and its supporters. The city of Waco was a little noisy that evening. This, by the way, is a report from the files of TCU. No reference to Mr. Fouts' strip act is to be found in the Baylor book."

One more Baylor game from that era demands attention. In 1910, Baylor met Texas in Waco. Baylor was coached by Ralph Glaze, a former All-America end at Dartmouth. Texas had a new coach, William S. ("Billy") Wasmund, a former quarterback at Michigan for Fielding "Hurry Up" Yost. The Baylor and Texas coaches clashed fiercely before the game about which of the officials should be the referee and run the game. Wasmund won the argument, and his choice was Vanderbilt ex Dan Blake, who had played for a coach at Vanderbilt who also was a Yost product.

The game was tied at 6-6 in the first half but, as Baylor players and their coach saw it, Blake was giving Texas all the better of it in his calls. On one occasion, Baylor had a chance to score and go ahead after getting a Texas fumble. But Blake got in the way of the Baylor player who appeared to be touchdown-bound and slowed him up just enough for a Texas player to run him down from behind at the UT 18. Later in the game, with Texas in possession at the Baylor 12, UT quarterback Arnold Kirkpatrick dropped the ball while trying to pass, and Baylor end Riley Hefley picked up the ball and started to run with it. According to a history of Longhorn football written by longtime Austin American-Statesman Lou Maysel, "Referee Blake jumped in and stopped him, declaring the play was dead because the ball had struck Blake. Two of the other three officials sided with Baylor, but Blake stuck to his decision, whereupon Glaze refused to let his team continue and eventually took it off the field."

Or, as Tips puts it in his history, "Owing to a rank decision by an official, Coach Glaze refused to continue and took his team off the field, ending the game."

Texas went home with a victory now officially recorded as a 1-0 win, although the Baylor record book for years listed it as a 6-6 tie. But a postscript is worth noting. Baylor had a mighty lineman that season, a future Rhodes Scholar named E.T. Adams, better known as "Bull" Adams. He had scored Baylor's only touchdown in that game when he grabbed a Texas fumble and ran 20 yards with it. When Glaze decided to take his team off the field, the raging and defiant Adams initially refused to go. As folklore has it, he challenged Texas to run its future plays only between the tackles. If the Longhorns would do so, he would take on the visitors by himself.

Texas declined and went home with its 1-0 victory. And Baylor was left with its only defeat that season.

Glaze would not enjoy another winning season before turning the football program over to Norman Paine for one season (1913). Paine in turn gave up the reins the next season to C.P. "Bubs" Mosley, who had been an outstanding player in his own right for Baylor. Mosley, who was inducted into the Baylor Athletics Hall of Fame in 1964, thus took over in 1914 as the team was becoming known as Bears and Baylor itself was becoming part of a new conference, the Southwest Conference.

The new league was formed on May 6 of that year, with football competition scheduled to begin in 1915. Baylor, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas, Texas A&M, Oklahoma A&M and Southwestern University were charter members. Rice was accepted provisionally and did participate in 1915, but then backed out for 1916 and 1917 before joining the league to stay in 1918.

Mosley did not have a good season in his inaugural year as head coach in Baylor's final season as an independent. Indeed, his team was only 3-5-2. Perhaps his inheritance was not all that great. The previous season, the team tied as many games as it won (three). So, Mosley's first season was hardly an accurate signal of things to come. He stayed around as head coach for six seasons, guiding the Bears through the 1919 campaign, and his overall record was 30-18-4. His winning pace of 62.5 percent would be exceeded by only his successor, Frank Bridges (66 percent) and by George Sauer (1950-55), who won at a 64 percent rate.

But Mosley did something that would become a rarity in Baylor football coaching circles; he won a share of the conference championship in 1915 while leading the newly-named Bears to a 7-1 record overall and a 3-0 mark in league play. Unbeaten Oklahoma had much the better overall record (10-0), but the Sooners also were 3-0 in league competition, and thus Baylor and Oklahoma were declared the new league's co-champions.

Alas, that decision did not stand. Baylor officials did some checking and discovered one of their players was a transfer from another college and thus not eligible to have played that season. According to Tips' history, Baylor offered to turn back the title but Oklahoma, "knowing this, made no effort to claim the title in dispute for itself; and aside from the fact that, for want of a second to Baylor's offer to quit-claim the championship, the conference did then and still does list the Bears as the first conference champions."

However, while the two teams continued to be listed at the top of the 1915 standings, the roster and record book published by the SWC in later years noted that "Baylor forfeited claim to co-championship for using ineligible player."

It was a zany start for the new league.

The following season brought another zany development. Texas was 5-1 for league play and 7-2 overall. Baylor was 3-1 in conference competition (the lone loss being to Texas A&M, 3-0), but 9-1 for the season. The league decided no champion would be recognized.

Baylor would not enjoy another really banner season until the early 1920s and by then the Bears were under the direction of Frank Bridges, of whom it was written (by the longtime regional sports editor of The Associated Press, Harold V. Ratliff, in his book, "I Shook the Hand"): "Cocky little Frank Bridges qualified as the puck of sportdom. His bag of tricks in football brought championships and humorous incidents; his mischievousness not only gave others laughs but sometimes got Frank into predicaments ... Bridges came into the Southwest Conference to bewilder opponents with such shenanigans as the hidden ball trick and the kickoff from the sidelines, and to bring to football the eight-man offensive line and the spin play."

And, Ratliff wrote in his book (published in 1948), "He won the only conference championships Baylor University ever knew in football. They still talk about his tackle-around play and they still chuckle at the old ivy-covered school and the colorful antics of this half-pint with the tart tongue."

Of course, Baylor is no longer an ivy-covered school. And the University has won other football championships than the ones Bridges brought to the school in 1922 and 1924. But, no question, he was something special as a coach in his day, and his teams were something special. As was noted in a book concerning the Texas Sports Hall of Fame and its members, "Name all the trick plays you've ever heard about. Frank Bridges almost certainly used them first."

They still laugh about the time in 1924 when Baylor was playing SMU, trailing 7-0, and desperately needing a touchdown late in the game to tie the score and sew up the championship. Bridges kept sending in players with instructions to call for the use of Baylor's famed spread formation. They kept failing to do so. So finally Bridges called time, walked out on the field himself, and said: "Now, Mr. Referee, when we spread out we want the fans to be quiet so we can hear the signals." The referee assured him the fans would be kept quiet. The Baylor quarterback got the hint, called a play using the spread, Baylor scored, tied the game and won the title.

Bridges' first title came in 1922 and featured a sensational back named Wesley Bradshaw (5-11, 170). Bradshaw came to Baylor from Burleson College in Greenville, and made all-conference in both 1921 and '22. In 1922, he became a one-man gang. He scored 30 points against Arkansas in one game and that year he scored 119 points, a total that stood as the Baylor record for 89 years. He lettered in four sports: football, basketball, baseball and track. Hall of Fame coach Warren Woodson once called him "the greatest open field runner I have ever seen perform."

Baylor was undefeated in league play in 1922 and 8-3 overall. Bears other than Bradshaw who won consensus All-SWC recognition that year included tackle Russell Blailock, guard Cop Weathers and back John Tanner.

By 1924, Bradshaw was gone, but Bridges was undeterred. His Bears won the championship again, posting a 4-0-1 record (7-2-1 overall), beating out SMU, which had a 2-0-4 mark. That Baylor team had such consensus All-SWC players as guards Jack Sisco and Bear Walker and backs Ralph Pittman and Bill Coffey, but mainly it had sophomore tackle/end/back Sam Coates (6-2, 225), a remarkable athlete who first played at Waco High and then moved across town to the Baylor campus and became one of the first players in league history to win consensus All-SWC recognition for three-straight seasons.

According to Tips, on Baylor's drive for a tying touchdown against SMU in 1924, Coates gained 10 yards on a tackle-around play, moved to end and caught a pass for a 50-yard gain, and then a few plays later, in the role of ball carrier, swept SMU's end for the tying touchdown. "Somebody else kicked the tying point, though," wrote Tips.

Two conference championships in a span of three years, those were heady times for the Baylor Bears. But they didn't last. Bridges resigned following the 1925 season after becoming involved in a dispute with the university's president, Samuel P. Brooks. Also, there were reports in various newspapers that claimed

Bridges had turned down two $10,000-a-year coaching jobs. Brooks called Bridges in and told him he could never expect to make that much at Baylor. "Why, I only receive $10,000," Brooks is said to have told Bridges. "That's all right, Doc," the puckish Bridges is quoted as replying. "I'll get you a raise."

Brooks laughed at the remark, "but that was the first inkling I had that he didn't like me," Bridges later said.

He left after compiling a six-year record of 35-18-6. Morley Jennings, who had compiled an impressive record of his own while coaching at Ouachita College in Arkansas, succeeded him and stayed around for 15 years, guiding the Baylor program through the challenging times brought on by the Great Depression. Jennings compiled an overall record of 83-60-6, came close to capturing the crown three times (second-place finishes in 1926, 1930 and 1933) and tutored perhaps the greatest lineman in Baylor history (Barton "Botchey" Koch), giving Waco some of the most exciting times it had ever experienced to that point.

Koch's greatest season came in 1930 when he became the first Southwest Conference player in history to win consensus All-America recognition. Koch was 5-11 and 220, and in the words of Hall of Fame coach Ray Morrison, "I've never seen a guard who could spend as much time in his opponents' backfield as Koch does." Koch's time at Baylor coincided with that of back Jake Wilson, a mighty mite of 5-10 and 147, a two-year all-conference selection and a true triple threat. Wilson and Koch made the Bears a strong team in 1930, but their 3-1-1 mark in SWC play finished a half-game behind Texas' 4-1-0 mark.

The Bears were good again in 1933 (4-2-0 mark in SWC play) with such all-conference selections as end Jim Tom Petty, guard Harold Clem and back Joe Jack Pearce, but again they finished as a runner-up to Arkansas. They were 6-3-1 and tied for third in the SWC race in 1936 as Lloyd Russell won all-star honors.

But it was in 1937 that they got Baylor ranks and the Central Texas population buzzing in a way not seen in decades. SMU and TCU had set the stage in 1935, both remaining undefeated until they clashed for the national championship on Nov. 30 in a game that commanded the presence of big-name sportswriters from all parts. SMU won that game and received an invitation to become the first Southwest Conference team ever to play in the Rose Bowl.

When Baylor won its first six games in 1937, defeating defending champion Arkansas and well-armed TCU and A&M, the Bears zoomed up to No. 4 in The Associated Press poll. Talk broke out all over the state: "Baylor to the Rose Bowl." Coming up next was Texas, destined to finish in the cellar that season in the SWC.

The Bears in that era were playing their games in Waco's relatively new Municipal Stadium, which had a capacity of 12,000, or maybe 15,000 if the place was jammed. It was jammed on that Saturday afternoon of Nov. 6 when Bears and Longhorns lined up for the kickoff. Also jammed was the radio booth where the ranks of broadcasters had been increased by the presence of a famous sports voice from New York.

Before the game, a representative of the Baylor Lariat, the campus newspaper, approached the famed visitor and asked him how he thought the game would go. "Young man, I get paid for my opinions," the visitor loftily replied. Standing nearby and hearing the conversation was Jinx Tucker, famed in his own right as longtime sports editor of the Waco Tribune-Herald. "Hal, here," said Tucker, fishing in his pocket and coming up with a nickel. "Give him this and let's find out all he knows."

If anyone in the vicinity thought Texas was going to score a shocking upset that day, he kept such an opinion to himself. But the Longhorns did, ambushing the Bears, 9-6, and not only ending all that Rose Bowl talk but also puncturing the Bears' dreams of winning the conference title. They wound up a 3-3 team in league play.

But not even defeat could diminish the brilliance of Baylor's famed twoosome of back Billy Patterson and end Sam Boyd. Both were two-year consensus All-SWC selections, both were early Baylor Athletics Hall of Fame inductees, and both had NFL career possibilities until World War II intervened.

Patterson was especially outstanding by any measure. He had been outstanding as a high school player at Hillsboro. "In all my years of coaching, I guess the boy I wanted most and didn't get was Billy Patterson," famed TCU coach Leo (Dutch) Meyer once said. Meyer couldn't complain, of course. He did get the likes of all-time college great Sammy Baugh and the first Heisman Trophy winner from west of the Mississippi, Davey O'Brien.

Patterson wound up at Baylor, although some of the civic leaders in Hillsboro had him primed to go to Texas. As Patterson told the story later, "Jack Chevigny was the coach at Texas and I had an appointment to meet him one day at the old Andrews Café in Hillsboro. I waited around awhile and he never showed up. When we (Baylor) went to Austin my sophomore year and beat Texas by scoring 21 points in the fourth quarter, and I was fortunate enough to make a few big plays, a delegation from Hillsboro went to Chevigny en masse after the game and told him, 'The kid who did so much in that last drive to beat you is the one you stood up in Hillsboro.'"

Patterson showed his true ability when Baylor upset Arkansas in 1937. He ran 71 yards for a touchdown, he threw a pass for 71 yards and another touchdown, he intercepted a pass and then threw for the winning touchdown as the Bears beat the defending champions, 20-14. Three Saturdays later, he threw a long pass to Boyd for the touchdown that beat a powerful TCU team that was led by O'Brien, 6-0.

Jennings also had good teams in 1938 and '39. The Bears finished well above .500 both seasons (7-2-1 in '38 and 7-3 in '39). If the situation then had been what it is today, they would have gone to bowls both years. But instead they stayed home as first TCU and then Texas A&M won national championships with teams that were unbeaten and untied and seldom challenged. Then the 1940 campaign marked the end of the Jennings era. Morley, widely admired, seldom blessed with the resources or talent of his adversaries, posted a 4-6 record that year as the Texas Aggies remained No. 1 in the national polls and stretched their long winning streak to Thanksgiving Day before Texas upset them, 7-0, and knocked a Rose Bowl invitation right out of their hands.

Meanwhile, Texas Tech, which had been campaigning for several years for membership in the Southwest Conference, hired Jennings at the end of the 1940 season to leave Baylor, move to Lubbock and head up the Red Raiders' athletic program and the school's bid for a place in the SWC. BU hired Frank Kimbrough, older brother of A&M's All-America fullback John Kimbrough, to succeed Jennings.

PROGRAM HISTORY

Kimbrough's tenure stretched over six years but included only four football seasons because of the school's decision to withdraw from football competition for the 1943 and 1944 seasons because of World War II. His second season (1942) produced encouraging results (6-4-1 overall, 3-2-1 in conference play), but it was his first season that produced one of the biggest shockers in the history of Baylor football.

The SWC had produced a mythical national champion (SMU) in 1935, the year before the annual Associated Press poll was started, and the AP's national champion in both 1938 (TCU) and 1939 (A&M). Then, A&M came within the late-season loss to Texas of repeating its national championship in 1940. So, conversation about national titles was becoming old hat to SWC fans. When Texas won its first six games in 1941, and all the victories coming by at least a 28-point margin, the Longhorns took over first place in the AP poll and critics labeled coach D.X. Bible's masterpiece the greatest team in Southwest Conference history.

Baylor, on the other hand, was far from a masterpiece. When injuries sidelined the Bears' outstanding back, Jack Wilson, Kimbrough's team became less than ordinary. It lost to Texas A&M, 48-0, and the following week it lost to TCU, 23-12, and experts saw no hope for the Bears against mighty Texas. Waco Tribune-Herald sage Jinx Tucker predicted a 50-0 Baylor defeat and advised fans to get to the game early, otherwise they would miss UT's first touchdown.

Playing in the same stadium where Texas had snuffed out Baylor's Rose Bowl talk in 1937, the Bears got their revenge. Their revved-up defense, paced by tackle Bubo Barnett, held Texas' superb breakaway back Jack Crain to a net gain of three yards for the afternoon.

But with two minutes to play, Texas held a 7-0 lead, thanks to a Baylor punt that had slanted out of bounds on the BU 10-yard line. Then, with time running short, the Bears took over on their own 28 and started moving downfield, mainly with the passes of Wilson's substitute, sophomore Kit Kittrell. A product of nearby McGregor High School, Kittrell drove the Bears to the Texas 18, where it was fourth-and-four with 18 seconds left. Kittrell, the tailback in Kimbrough's single wing formation, took the snap and began to roam around. His primary target, Willie Coleman, all 5 feet 8 inches and 155 pounds, suddenly emerged in the clear from a crowd of Longhorns. Kittrell's pass was high, but Coleman leaped and came down with the ball and the Bears had a touchdown. And then Wilson, adhesive tape covering his sprained ankle, hobbled onto the field and kicked the extra point that gave BU a 7-7 tie that was almost universally hailed as a victory.

Two decades later, a panel of Texas sports writers voted that 7-7 tie "the greatest upset in Southwest Conference history." Incidentally, Texas was so staggered the Longhorns lost their next game, too, to TCU. End of Rose Bowl talk, end of championship hopes. But the Longhorns, who eventually lost out on all the bowls, did leave the state talking, slaughtering Oregon, 71-

7, in their season finale on Dec. 6. The next day, the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor and people quit talking about both the Longhorns and the Rose Bowl.

Baylor resumed football competition in 1945 with a team that finished 5-5-1, but when Kimbrough's 1946 team could win only one game in nine tries and none in league play, a hue and cry arose that a coaching change had to be made.

Exit Kimbrough, enter Bob Woodruff. And as former Baylor athletic faculty rep, then president and finally chancellor Abner McCall once said, it was only then, in 1947, that Baylor really got serious about football.

Woodruff, who had been one of Bobby Dodds' principal assistants at Georgia Tech, brought with him a former Georgia Tech standout named Frank Broyles to help him, and in their second year on the job they got the Bears respectable, highly competitive and into a bowl, Baylor's first. That 1948 team, sparked by junior college transfer quarterback Adrian Burk and all-conference linemen Buddy Tinsley and Bentley Jones, finished in a tie for third in the conference race, 6-3-2 overall, and beat Wake Forest, 20-7, in the "Dixie Bowl" in Birmingham, Ala. Tinsley, at 6-3 and 240 (and later a super star in Canadian football), was the heaviest man on the consensus all-conference team, and Jones, a 5-10, 165-pound guard, was the lightest.

The 1948 Baylor team was a good one. The 1949 team was great, one of the greatest in Baylor history. It won its first six games, climbed to No. 6 in the AP poll (before losing to Texas), finished second at 8-2 behind an outstanding Rice team that was unbeaten in league play, and became the catalyst for the drive that resulted in Baylor building a new 50,000-seat stadium the next year.

That 1949 Baylor team had a superlative end named J.D. Ison, an all-conference guard named Don Mouser, and quarterback Burk, who both punted and passed in an All-America manner. Burk led the nation in passing that season, completing 57.6 percent of his 191 throws for 1,428 yards (which ranked second in SWC history at that time) and 14 touchdowns. He was never better than he was on Nov. 19 of that season, when Baylor beat SMU for the first time since 1936.

SMU that season was led by Hall of Fame coach Matty Bell and featured such stars as former Heisman Trophy winner Doak Walker, future All-Pro Kyle Rote and other Mustangs who had been instrumental in SMU winning the conference crown the two previous years. The game was played at the Cotton Bowl (by then SMU's home stadium) before a crowd of 63,337, the biggest crowd ever to watch the Bears play up to that time. Burk threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to back Dudley Parker on the first play from scrimmage, and after that the game just got wilder and wilder.

Baylor assistant Frank Broyles, the excitable sort, was in a scouting booth in the press box, watching the teams exchange touchdowns in rapid fire order. Finally, the time arrived for him to leave his place in the scouting booth and go to ground level to be with the team at halftime. He caught the slow-moving press box elevator, and as it made its way downward, Broyles heard a huge roar coming from the stands. Upon reaching the ground, he ran up the nearest ramp, grabbed a fan and demanded, "What happened, what happened?"

Came the exasperated reply: "Those guys scored again."

Unenlightened, Broyles quickly posed another question: "Yes, yes, but which ones."

Baylor had the last word (and last score) in that game, winning a 35-26 verdict and moving back up to No. 9 in the AP poll. Doak Walker caught a touchdown pass in that game while lying on his back in the end zone. But alas, the Bears lost to Rice in their final game, 21-7, and shortly after that Woodruff accepted Florida's offer to come coach the Gators. And he took Broyles with him.

Baylor's response was to hire George Sauer, who had coached with great success at Kansas and then with some success at Navy. Sauer, a former All-America fullback at Nebraska, coached six years at Baylor and gave the Bears some of the most exciting football the school has enjoyed in its history of playing the game.

"That was our Golden Era," declares Gale Galloway, a co-captain of the 1951 team and an outstanding linebacker who probably would have made it big in the pros if it had not been for the Korean War. Instead, he wound up as chief executive officer of several Fortune 500 companies and became one of Baylor's major benefactors. Galloway would include the 1949 team when making that "Golden Era" assessment.

Sauer arrived just in time to direct the Bears in their new stadium. His first team (1950) was a fine one, posting a 7-3 record and finishing second in the SWC title chase; his second team was even better. It finished a half game out of first place after being upset by eventual champion TCU. But it also wound up in Baylor's first "major" bowl, the Orange Bowl, where it lost to Georgia Tech, 17-14.

Those were teams featuring the wondrous wizardry of quarterback Larry Isbell (All-America in 1951 and generally recognized as Baylor's finest quarterback in the 20th century), the pass catching of All-Americans Stan Williams and Harold Riley, the running of fullback Richard Parma and the defensive work of Galloway, tackle Ken Casner and guard Bill Athey. The 1951 Bears finished ninth in the AP poll, at that time the highest ever for a Baylor team.

Sauer's Bears were back knocking at the door again in 1953, finishing a game out of a share of the title after winning their first six games and attaining the highest ranking ever for a Baylor team — No. 3 in the AP poll before beating TCU and again before losing by a single point to Texas in Austin. That team featured what became known as the "Fearsome Foursome" backfield, comprised of Cotton Davidson at quarterback, Jerry Coody and L.G. Dupre at the halfbacks and Allen Jones at fullback. They formed an explosive package, but after getting upset by Texas the Bears lost their focus. Still ranked No. 9, they went down with a thud to Houston (37-7) and finished the season by losing to Rice, 41-19.

But even as the season fell apart, the Baylor freshman team, quarterbacked by lethal passer Doyle Traylor, was rampaging through its schedule unbeaten and winning praise as the greatest Baylor Cub team in history. When the 1954 season rolled around, the players from that team moved up to augment the varsity, making for another elite Baylor team.

It started with a bang, avenging its 1953 loss to Houston by trouncing the Cougars, 53-13, in its season opener. That truly was a revenge game for the Bears. The year before, Houston millionaire Hugh Roy Cullen had given the Cougars a multi-million-dollar gift for upsetting Baylor, and in 1954 the Bears proved they had not forgotten.

PROGRAM HISTORY

Guided by All-SWC quarterback Billy Hooper and bolstered by All-America tackle Jim Ray Smith, they got up to No. 10 in the AP poll before losing back-to-back road games to Miami (19-13) and Arkansas (21-20), but then they reeled off five victories in a row. After beating conference leader SMU, 33-21, before 47,000 in Dallas, they returned home to take on Rice. A victory over the Owls would give them a share of that elusive crown. They didn't get it. Although Baylor's terrific sophomore back, Del Shofner, got loose on a run that carried to the Rice 6-yard line late in the game, the Bears were unable to cash in. They lost, 20-14, leaving them tied with Rice for third. Their consolation prize: an invitation to play Auburn in the Gator Bowl. And in Jacksonville, Fla., the Tigers of Auburn stomped them, 33-13.

But they had one of their greatest seasons in Baylor history two years later. By then, Sauer had become athletic director only, turning the football reins over to assistant coach Sam Boyd, the 1937-38 Baylor hero. And Boyd's team, blessed with the talent and depth few Baylor teams have ever had, quickly made waves. They won their first four games while surrendering a total of only 13 points, and they were ranked No. 8 in the land when they took on coach Bear Bryant's No. 7-ranked Aggies at Baylor Stadium.

The result was the biggest crowd I personally have ever seen at that stadium. Although the crowd was officially announced as 49,500, the stands were full, both end zones were full, and dozens of fans were standing on the field just beyond the end zone. The result also was a game that was bitterly fought and physical to an extreme. Bryant later said: "The Baylor-A&M game in 1956 was the bloodiest, meanest, most brutal game one of my teams was ever in."

The Aggies, led by future Heisman Trophy winner John David Crow, won the game, 19-13, and Baylor fans left the stadium talking darkly about a controversial call made by one of the officials that overturned the Baylor recovery of an A&M fumble late in the game. Then the next week the Bears, still waiting for their offense to develop, went to Fort Worth and lost to TCU, 7-6.

After that game, their offense came alive. They did not lose again. They mauled Nebraska, 26-7; blanked SMU, 26-0; and just wore out old nemesis Rice, 46-13. Those scores caught the eye of the Sugar Bowl, which invited them to play No. 2-ranked Tennessee on Jan. 1 in New Orleans.

By then, the Bears were truly a powerhouse, featuring the likes of do-it-all back Shofner, quarterbacks Bobby Jones and Buddy Humphrey (Doyle Traylor had become one of Baylor's hard-luck stories of all time, twice losing seasons because of broken bones), ends Jerry Marcontell and Earl Wayne Miller, and such superlative Bears up front as All-America Bill Glass, Clyde Letbetter, Charley Horton and Bill Parsley. But Tennessee had tradition, a perfect record, that No. 2 ranking, and All-America tailback Johnny Majors.

The Volunteers were strongly favored. The Bears won the game, 13-7, Baylor's greatest bowl victory of all time.

Boyd, in his first year at the Baylor football helm, had reached the highest point he would attain. Lacking Shofner's speed and most of that muscle up front, his 1957 team finished in the SWC cellar, and his 1958 team, although exciting because of the power running of fullback Larry Hickman and the throwing of Humphrey (No. 1 nationally in number of completions), finished last again.

John Bridgers, who had been an assistant coach on the staff of the NFL champion Baltimore Colts, was brought in to replace Boyd as head coach and Sauer as athletic director. He brought with him the Baltimore Colt offense, which generated plenty of excitement, pass completions and a strong presence in the headlines, but only near-misses in runs at the SWC championship.

The 1960 team, featuring Ronnie Bull, Ronnie Goodwin, Tommy Minter and Ronnie Stanley in the backfield, beat 1958 national champion LSU in Baton Rouge and eventual SWC champion Arkansas in Fayetteville, and got up to No. 7 in the polls before losing to TCU, 14-6, in Fort Worth, and 12-7 to Texas in Waco. The Bears finished with an 8-2 record, one game behind Arkansas, but then got nosed out again in the Gator Bowl, losing to Florida, 13-12.

Injuries ruined the 1961 team, which had been one of the preseason SWC favorites, but the Bears still made it to the new Gotham Bowl played at the old Polo Grounds in New York City. In that game, they soundly defeated a Merlin Olsen-led Utah State team, 24-9.

The bowl's promoters were novices at such things, and when informed the day before the game that it was customary for a bowl to present the players and coaches involved with some kind of memento — a blanket, a wristwatch or such — they scurried around and came up with a special gift for all concerned: a shoeshine kit.

Baylor's 1963 team would challenge the '61 team as Bridgers' masterpiece. It featured an All-America battery of quarterback Don Trull and wideout Lawrence Elkins, it had an offensive line that provided great pass protection for Trull, and it had an underrated but effective defense. It won five of its first six games and was unbeaten in league play when it went to Austin on Nov. 9 to take on No. 1-ranked, undefeated Texas.

The Longhorns won that game, 7-0, but coach Darrell Royal's team had to withstand a withering Baylor challenge that carried inside the Texas 20 in the final seconds before quarterback Duke Carlisle, left in the lineup for defensive purposes on Baylor's last big drive, dashed across the end zone and intercepted a pass that Elkins all but had in his eager mitts. Such a reception would have left Baylor in position to tie the game and claim priority on going to the Cotton Bowl as the league's co-champion.

Left frustrated in Austin, the Bears won the remainder of their games, accepted an invitation to play LSU in the Bluebonnet Bowl, and there they beat the Bengal Tigers more decisively than the 14-7 final score indicated.

Bridgers was never able to get the Bears better than 5-5 during the remainder of his 10-year tenure, but the 1966 season did provide two special highlights. The first came in the Bears' opening game, which was nationally televised on ABC. Meeting a seventh-ranked Syracuse team that was armed with both Floyd Little and Larry Csonka in the backfield, the underdog Bears just romped and stomped. Final score: Baylor 35, Syracuse 12. Also, Baylor became the first school in the nine-member Southwest Conference to play an African-American player in a football game. With 31,000 people in attendance, John Hill Westbrook, a Baylor running back from Elgin, Texas, entered the Syracuse game in the fourth quarter and broke the color barrier in SWC football.

A month later, the Bears went to Fayetteville to take on an Arkansas team that had won back-to-back SWC titles and boasted a long regular season winning streak. But it lost that day. The Bears, led by All-America defensive guard Greg Pipes, shut out the favored Hogs, 7-0.

When Bridgers' contract ran out after the 1968 season, Baylor decided not to renew it. Instead, Bill Beall was brought in from LSU. Beall had been an assistant under Jess Neely at Rice and then Charlie McClendon at LSU, but he was not the answer at Baylor. His teams only won three games in three seasons, and Baylor's decision-makers decided a change had to be made.

By then, a revered name from Baylor's past, Jack Patterson, who had won three SWC track and field championships over a four-year span for the Bears before accepting a similar post at Texas, agreed to return to Baylor as the school's new athletic director. When Beall was fired, Patterson was put in total charge of the hunt to find an acceptable successor. His choice after several disappointments: Grant Teaff, the head coach at Angelo State.

Baylor's choice of Teaff was questioned on several fronts and ridiculed on others. But the scoffing stopped the first year. Teaff coached the tissue-thin Bears to a 5-6 record and won Southwest Conference Coach of the Year honors. And his fine defensive end, Roger Goree, won consensus All-America recognition. But when his 1973 team sought to produce a suitable encore, it fell flat. The Bears finished 2-9 and failed to win a single conference game.

So, when 1974 rolled around, Baylor was the popular choice to finish last or next to last again. The team had a young offensive line, a quarterback who had a speech impediment and a tailback who was about 5 feet 7 inches tall. But when the 43-point underdogs went to Norman to open their season against No. 1-ranked Oklahoma, and wound up giving the Sooners about all they could handle (OU led by only a 7-5 score going into the fourth quarter) before losing, 28-11, even Oklahoma coach Barry Switzer came to their dressing room after the game to tell them what a great game they had played.

They let victory slip through their fingers the next week against Missouri, but when they returned to Waco and beat No. 8-ranked Oklahoma State the following Saturday, everyone knew Neal Jeffrey was quite a quarterback, Steve Beaird was a real dynamo at tailback and never mind his short stature, and the Bear defense was for real.

The season became one Baylor fans will never forget. True, they stumbled against Texas A&M in a 20-0 game, but they did not stumble again. After getting behind by 17 points at halftime against No. 12 Texas, against a coach (Darrell Royal) that Baylor had never beaten, and then forging a mighty second-half comeback that produced 27 unanswered points and a resounding 34-24 victory, the Bears put together a Miracle on the Brazos that would not be denied.

When great Baylor football victories are discussed, the Baylor-Texas game of 1974 usually tops the list. Royal came to the Baylor locker room after the game to congratulate the Bears and urge them to go on now and win that long-sought conference crown. And Oklahoma's Switzer sent Teaff a telegram, telling him the rest of the country now was finding out what OU found out in that season opener.

Baylor let the scoreboard lights burn all night after that remarkable victory, and several members of the Baylor administration, along with at least one regent, secured their bedrolls and spent the night at the stadium.

When the Bears beat Rice amid blizzard-like conditions at Baylor Stadium on Nov. 30, they nailed down something no other Baylor team had managed in 50 years: an undisputed SWC football championship.

That feat took them to the Cotton Bowl to play Penn State, and while they lost that game by a 41-20 score (after leading at halftime), Baylor fans hardly noticed. They had finally made it to Big D on New Year's Day, that was all that mattered.

Linebacker Derrel Luce and center Aubrey Schulz won All-America honors that season; Jeffrey, Beaird and defensive back Ron Burns won All-SWC recognition; and Teaff was named National Coach of the Year. The Bears had come from last to first in one short season. And Beaird had become the first Baylor back ever to rush for 1,000 yards (actually, 1,104) in a season.

They had a good season in 1976 (7-3-1) but a bowl invitation escaped them. Although four-touchdown underdogs, they scored the most points any Baylor team had ever scored against UT in 1978 while beating the Longhorns, 38-14.

The next season, they pieced together an 8-4 season that was flavored by a 24-18 Peach Bowl victory over No. 18 Clemson, and then in 1980 they pushed all the right buttons again. They won their first seven games, climbed to No. 10 in the national polls, and after allowing themselves to get upset by San Jose State, they won the remainder of their games to win the conference title by a record-tying three full games.

The key victory was a thrilling comeback win over SMU (32-28) but one that old Baylor fans still like to talk about was the 46-7 trouncing of Texas A&M at College Station in a game that was played in a monsoon.

They actually wound up their regular season by blanking No. 20 Texas, 16-0, and that Nov. 22, 1980, victory was the last shutout suffered by the Texas Longhorns until 2004.

While no Baylor team will ever replace the 1974 Bears in the hearts of Baylor fans, that 1980 team surely ranks No. 1 in terms of pure accomplishment. It not only won the crown by three full games, it led the league in both total offense and total defense and put no fewer than eight players (a record for a Baylor team) on the consensus all-conference team. And it put on the field the player who has become the most decorated player in Baylor's football history: linebacker Mike Singletary.

Singletary joined wideout Lawrence Elkins as the only two-year consensus All-America selections ever to wear the green and gold. They both have been inducted in the National College Football Hall of Fame. But Singletary also was a three-year All-SWC choice (Elkins made the honor team two seasons), and he went on to be chosen on the Football Writers' 25-year All-America team (one of only three players to win the honor from the SWC, the other two being offensive lineman Jerry Sisemore of Texas and Tony Franklin of A&M), and to become a multiple All-NFL choice in the NFL while playing with the Chicago Bears. Truly, Mike Singletary was one of a kind.

He was one of those nine Bears who won consensus All-SWC recognition in 1980. The others were offensive guard Frank Ditta (also named All-America), quarterback Jay Jeffrey (younger brother of Neal), running backs Walter Abercrombie and Dennis Gentry, defensive linemen Charles Benson and Joe Campbell, linebacker Doak Field and defensive back Vann McElroy.

Abercrombie, who led the league in rushing that season with 1,187 yards, would become Baylor's all-time leading rusher before winding up his college career the following season and then becoming a first-round draft choice of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Baylor's domination of the league in 1980 paid off in a trip to the Cotton Bowl to play Bear Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide. That game became a defensive struggle for the longest time before the Bears finally cracked and Alabama went home with a 30-2 victory.

The Bears had a good season in 1983 (7-4-1), winning their way to the Bluebonnet Bowl to play Oklahoma State (they lost, 24-14), but that was but a prelude for the excellent teams they fielded in 1985 and 1986. They tied for second both seasons after breaking in front early, and they climaxed both seasons with bowl victories — 21-7 over LSU in the Liberty Bowl in '85 and 21-9 over Colorado in the Bluebonnet the following season.

Those teams also featured some favorite Baylor names starting with quarterbacks Cody Carlson and Tom Muecke. In 1986, on Oct. 18, the Bears met a Jackie Sherrill-coached A&M team in a game that was later voted the SWC's best game of the decade. Baylor roared out to a 17-0 lead in that game, but the No. 11 Aggies came back to have the last word in a 31-30 stem-winder. That verdict knocked the Bears out of the championship and kept them out of the Cotton Bowl.

The Bears struggled to stay on the topside of .500 for the remainder of the decade, but they punctuated a 5-6 season in their final game of the 1980s by going to Austin and beating Texas by the historic margin of 50-7. In doing so they gave Teaff the victory on UT turf that he had always declared he would win before he ended his Baylor coaching career.

The Bears stirred hopes that they would become something special in 1991, winning their first five games (including a 16-14 victory over defending national champion Colorado on the Buffaloes' own turf in Boulder, ending what had been an impressive CU winning streak there) and rising to No. 8 in the national polls. But then, they lost to Rice and A&M in succession, and later to Texas Tech. The final result was an 8-3 season that yielded a trip to the Copper Bowl, but there they went flat, losing to Indiana, 24-0.

Before the 1992 season started, Teaff let it be known that the coming season would be his last one. And the Bears, sparked by quarterback J.J. Joe, made it a memorable one for him, beating visiting Georgia Tech in an intersectional game, nosing out Texas in their final regular season game and then upsetting No. 22 Arizona, 20-15, in the Sun Bowl.

The Hall of Fame-bound Teaff thus was left with a 128-105-6 mark for his 21 seasons at BU.

His offensive coordinator, Chuck Reedy, succeeded him, and in 1994 coached the Bears to a 7-4 record overall and a 4-3 mark in conference play. The 4-3 mark, oddly enough, proved to be good enough to give the Bears a piece of the five-way split of the championship after A&M, unbeaten but ineligible for title consideration because of rules violations, was left in limbo. The Bears, led by such All-SWC players as tackle Fred Miller on offense and LaCurtis Jones and Adrian Robinson on defense, wound up their season by losing to Washington State, 10-3, in the Alamo Bowl.

Reedy's 1995 team was 7-4 overall and 5-2 in conference play, good enough for a three-way share of second place, but the entire season was overshadowed by a more momentous development. The Southwest Conference was breaking up. Baylor was joining A&M, Texas and Texas Tech in a new league that would be known as the Big 12. Athletic relations going back to the early years of the 20th century were about to be severed.

Reedy's final season at Baylor was the school's first in the Big 12. The Bears were 4-7 that season and posted a 1-7 mark in Big 12 play after opening the year with wins over Louisiana Tech, at Louisville and at home against Oregon State.

Dave Roberts guided the program for the 1997 and 1998 seasons before giving way to Kevin Steele's four-year campaign.

Steele was replaced by Guy Morriss, who guided the program to more success than it had previously enjoyed during the Big 12 era; however, the bowl drought and losing-season streak both continued. Morriss' tenure did not come without highlights, though. In his first Big 12 game, the Bears upset defending north division champion Colorado on national television.

The following season (2004) saw the Bears end a 20-year winless famine against Texas A&M. After a wild fourth quarter, the game went to overtime. Texas A&M quickly scored, but the Bears answered immediately on a Shawn Bell-to-Dominique Zeigler touchdown pass. Morriss decided to put the game away right then and there, going for an all-or-nothing two-point conversion. Bell and Zeigler connected again, giving the Bears the 35-34 victory and sparking a celebration Floyd Casey Stadium had not seen in years.

The Bears enjoyed their best season in a decade in 2005, going 5-6 and posting multiple conference wins for the first time in the Big 12 era. In 2006, Baylor went 3-5 in conference play, but three costly losses in early season non-league games sent Baylor to a 4-8 record. The Bears dropped to 3-9 in 2007 and suffered their first winless conference season since 2003.

Baylor ushered in a new era in 2008 under first-year head coach Art Briles. The Bears finished 4-8 overall and 2-6 in Big 12 play, but promise of a brighter future was evident. Briles' innovative offense and the emergence of Freshman All-America quarterback Robert Griffin III brought new optimism to the program. The Bears lost four games by 10 points or less, including a three-point loss to nationally ranked Missouri and a one-touchdown loss at seventh-ranked Texas Tech.

At season's end, several Bears earned post-season honors, including first-team All-Big 12 selections Jason Smith (offensive tackle), Joe Pawelek (linebacker) and Jordan Lake (safety). Griffin was named Big 12 Freshman of the Year, and Smith earned All-America honors from several outlets. Smith also was selected by the St. Louis Rams with the second overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft, tying for the highest-drafted player in Baylor history regardless of sport.

After a promising start, the 2009 season suffered injury setbacks in the season's first month, including the season-ending loss of superstar quarterback and face-of-the-program Griffin III in the third game (all told, eight different starters missed games in 2009 due to injury). The Bears remained competitive, but a season that began with a road win over ACC power Wake Forest and the team receiving votes in the AP Top 25 poll ended with a 4-8 record. The Bears notched a second impressive road victory in 2009, upsetting Missouri, 40-32, in Columbia.

Year three of the Briles era marked Baylor's return to the postseason landscape in 2010. Baylor entered the 2010 season as owners of the seventh-longest active bowl drought among NCAA Division I FBS schools. It also entered the season with the return of Griffin III, who missed the 2009 season's final nine games with a torn ACL. Baylor opened the season with back-to-back home victories over Sam Houston State and Buffalo. Following a 45-10 setback at eventual Rose Bowl champion TCU in the third week, the Bears returned to the win column with a decisive 30-13 road win at Rice.

With a 3-1 record, Baylor opened Big 12 play at Floyd Casey Stadium against Kansas. Griffin III and the Bears re-wrote the Baylor record book with a record-setting 55-7 win over the Jayhawks. RG3 threw for a then-career-best 380 yards and connected with Josh Gordon, who turned a short pass into a school-record 94-yard TD reception. It was also Baylor's most lopsided conference victory ever.

The following week, Baylor and Texas Tech met in the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex — this time at Cotton Bowl Stadium. Griffin III set a new career high with 384 passing yards and four touchdowns, but the Red Raiders held on for a 45-38 victory. Baylor RB Terrance Ganaway became a YouTube sensation after returning a Texas Tech onside kick 38 yards for a score.

In the final meeting as Big 12 rivals, Baylor fended off a late Colorado charge, defeating the Buffaloes, 31-25, in Boulder, pushing the Bears' record to 5-2 overall. Baylor's 47-42 Homecoming victory Oct. 23 against Kansas State marked its sixth win of the season, making the Bears bowl-eligible for the first time since 1995. Once the clock hit 0:00, fans stormed the field in celebration of Baylor snapping its 16-year bowl drought. Following its bowl-eligibility-clinching win, Baylor returned to the Top 25 polls for the first time in more than a decade. Baylor debuted at No. 25 in the AP Top 25 — its first AP ranking since 1993, while jumping into the ESPN/USA TODAY Top 25 Coaches' poll (No. 24) for the first time since 1995.

The Bears defended their new rankings with a 30-22 win at longtime rival Texas, earning its first win in Austin since 1991.

At 7-2, the Bears closed the regular season with three nationally ranked Big 12 South foes — Oklahoma State, Texas A&M and Oklahoma — and were on the losing side of all three.

On Sunday, Dec. 5, Baylor accepted an invitation to play Illinois in the 2010 Texas Bowl Bowl at Reliant Stadium in Houston, finally snapping its long bowl drought.

And while it had been a long wait for Baylor to make it back to a bowl game, the Bears were unable to stop Illinois' backfield duo of Mikel Leshoure and Nathan Scheelhasse. Illinois handled the Bears, 38-14, in front of a pro-Baylor crowd at Reliant Stadium. In the loss, though, Jay Finley broke Walter Abercrombie's single-season school rushing record, finishing the 2010 season with 1,218 rushing yards. Griffin III also became Baylor's all-time leading passer, breaking the previous mark held by J.J. Joe.

Two Baylor players — Phil Taylor and Danny Watkins — were drafted in the first round of the 2011 NFL Draft, giving the Bears two first-round draft picks for the first time since 1957.

During a historic record-breaking 2011 season, Briles led Baylor to a school-record 10 wins and its highest final ranking (12th) since 1986, earned the school's first bowl victory in 19 years and coached the first Heisman Trophy winner in program history - quarterback Robert Griffin III.

Briles' accomplishments were recognized when he was named a 2011 Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award finalist. The Bears finished the 2011 season with a 10-3 record, including a memorable 67-56 Alamo Bowl win over Washington, and ranked 12th (coaches) and 13th (AP) nationally. Baylor's offense set or tied 108 school records and three Bears -- national player of the year RG3, all-time receiving leader Kendall Wright and single-season rushing leader Terrance Ganaway -- earned All-America honors.

The Bears finished 2011 on a six-game winning streak. In that streak, Baylor beat No. 5 Oklahoma for the first time in program history, defeated Texas in back-to-back years for the first time since 1991-92, knocked off Texas Tech for the first time in Big 12 play and pulled off the program's largest comeback ever with a 21-point fourth quarter rally to win overtime at Kansas.

Briles' powerful offense ranked No. 2 nationally in 2011, averaging 587.1 yards per game, and was the only offensive unit nationally to rank in the top 10 in both passing (fourth, 351.5 ypg) and rushing (10th, 235.6 ypg).

The Bears shattered records at the turnstiles in 2011 as well, as school records for attendance (289,574 in seven games) and average attendance (41,368) were set in 2011. Baylor finished a perfect 7-0 at Floyd Casey Stadium, just the third perfect record in the stadium's history and a school record for home wins in a single season.

For the second-consecutive season, two Baylor players — Griffin III and Wright — were selected in the first round of the 2012 NFL Draft. Griffin III, drafted No. 2 overall, and Wright, drafted 21st overall, were among five BU players taken in the draft.

Despite the departure of Griffin III and the four other NFL Draft picks from its record-breaking 2011 squad, the Bears opened 2012 just how they had finished 2011 — winning.

Baylor notched victories in each of its first three contests to rack up the second-longest winning streak in school history at nine. However, the defeats piled up quickly after that as BU fell to 3-4 with four straight losses to open Big 12 play.

From that point, the Bears would win five of their next six games, including a thrashing of No. 1-ranked Kansas State, 52-24, (the school's first-ever win over the nation's top-ranked team) to finish the season 8-5.

Following the win over K-State, Baylor knocked off Texas Tech at Cowboys Stadium, 52-45, in an overtime thriller to become bowl-eligible for a third-straight year.

The Bears took care of Oklahoma State in the final regular-season game to record three-straight years of at least seven wins for the first time since 1949-51. In total, Baylor had won 25 games over the previous three years, which was the most in any three-year stretch in school history.

Playing in a third-consecutive bowl game for the first time in school history, Baylor produced a dominating 49-26 Holiday Bowl win over No. 17 UCLA.

The 2012 Bears finished second nationally in total offense (572.3 ypg), and boasted offensive standouts QB Nick Florence (second in nation in total offense - 375.2 ypg), unanimous All-American and Biletnikoff Award finalist Terrance Williams (led the nation with 1,832 receiving yards) and All-American offensive lineman Cyril Richardson.

Williams was picked in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys, giving BU four receivers drafted in four years.

The 2013 season provided a perfect final chapter for Floyd Casey Stadium as the Bears won their first Big 12 championship in their last season at the facility.

Before conference action, Baylor grabbed national headlines with an electrifying offense that powered the Bears to home wins over Wofford (69-3), Buffalo (70-13) and ULM (70-7).

The scoring did not stop once Big 12 play started as the Bears set league and school records for points in a 73-42 win over West Virginia. Next, Baylor took its show on the road and picked up its first-ever win in Manhattan, Kan., with a 35-25 victory vs. Kansas State. Baylor returned to Waco and won a school record seventh-straight Big 12 game, in a 71-7 Homecoming romp over Iowa State, before setting a school record with its 11th-consecutive victory overall in a 59-14 triumph at Kansas.

Facing its first ranked foe of the season, Baylor wowed a crowd of 50,437 at Floyd Casey Stadium by dominating 12th-ranked Oklahoma, 41-12, to start the season 8-0 for the first time in school history.

BU beat Texas Tech for a third-straight year at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, 63-34. Following that game, the Bears achieved their highest AP rank since 1953 of No. 3.

Baylor's school-record marks of 13-straight wins and 10-consecutive Big 12 victories came to an end with a 49-17 setback at No. 10 Oklahoma State in below-freezing temperatures. The Bears rebounded with a 41-38 win at TCU for a school-record tying 10th victory on the season.

In the final game of the regular season and the final game at Floyd Casey Stadium, Baylor took out Texas for the third time in four years, 30-10, to win the Big 12 title outright. With the largest crowd (51,728) in stadium history in attendance, BU set school records for total season attendance (321,639) and season average attendance (45,948).

Baylor finished a perfect 7-0 at Floyd Casey Stadium, just the fourth perfect record in the stadium's history, tying a school record for home wins in a single season. Baylor's all-time record at "The Case" finished at 191-146-5.

The Big 12 title qualified the Bears for a BCS game, the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, for the first time in school history. In its fourth- consecutive bowl appearance, Baylor dropped a 52-42 decision to No. 15 UCF.

The 2013 Bears finished No. 1 nationally in total offense (618.8 ypg), and set an NCAA record with 681 total points in a 13-game season. Individually, a program-best five players earned All-America honors, including S Ahmad Dixon, WR Antwan Goodley, QB Bryce Petty, Richardson and P Spencer Roth.

Dixon and Richardson, along with CB Demetri Goodson, WR Tevin Reese and RB Lache Sastrunk, were drafted in May's NFL draft.

After closing down Floyd Casey Stadium in style in 2013, Baylor opened up state-of-the-art McLane Stadium with another Big 12 Conference title in 2014.

In the inaugural game at the $260-million Jewel of the Brazos, Baylor shut out SMU, 45-0, with former president George W. Bush on hand for the ceremonial coin toss.

In two other non-league games, Baylor rolled to wins over Northwestern State (70-6) and at Buffalo (63-21).

From there, BU opened up Big 12 play with road victories at Iowa State (49-28) and Texas (28-7).

The Bears had been ranked No. 10 in the preseason, their first such designation since 1986, and then rose to No. 5 heading into a showdown with No. 9 TCU in Waco – only the second top-10 game in the city's history.

In one of the greatest games in all of college football for 2014, the Bears scored 24-straight points in the final 11 minutes of the game, capped by Chris Callahan's 28-yard field goal as time expired to beat the Horned Frogs, 61-58.

The win pushed Baylor to a 6-0 start for a second-straight season, the first time for that accomplishment in school history.

Despite peaking at No. 4 in the AP poll, the Bears fell in their next game at West Virginia, 41-28.

Baylor returned home to cruise to a Homecoming victory, 60-14, over Kansas as fans striped McLane Stadium in green and gold.

Back out on the road, the Bears posted their first-ever win in Norman, Okla., by blowing past 16th-ranked Oklahoma, 48-14, with BU scoring the final 45 points of the game to snap a 37-game losing streak in road games against ranked opponents.

BU ended conference play on a five-game win streak after taking care of Oklahoma State, 49-28, Texas Tech, 48-46, and Kansas State, 38-27.

In that final game of the regular season against the Wildcats with a Big 12 title on the line, Baylor pleased the largest crowd of the season at McLane Stadium (47,934) by hoisting its second-straight league trophy.

In the first year of the College Football Playoff, the Bears were the final team left out of the four-team tournament, settling instead to play at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl. In its fifth-consecutive bowl appearance, Baylor jumped out to a 41-21 lead, but ultimately fell to No. 7 Michigan State, 42-41, in heartbreaking fashion.

The 2014 Baylor squad finished No. 1 nationally in total offense (581.5 ypg) and scoring (48.2), while tying a school-record with 11 wins and ending the year with a program-high ranking of No. 7 (AP) and No. 8 (coaches).

Individually, a program-best tying five players earned All-America honors, including WR Corey Coleman, OL Spencer Drango, LB Bryce Hager, DE Shawn Oakman and QB Petty.

Hager and Petty were selected in May's NFL draft, giving Baylor the most pro selections in the state of Texas over the last four years (16).

After winning two-straight Big 12 titles, Baylor rolled into the 2015 season with the highest preseason rankings in school history at No. 4 in both the AP Top 25 and Amway Coaches Poll.

The Bears dominated their opening non-conference games, winning at SMU (56-21) and then besting Lamar (66-31) and Rice (70-17).

BU opened up Big 12 play by taking care of Texas Tech for a fifth-straight year, 63-35, at AT&T Stadium in Arlington. Big wins at Kansas (66-7) and against West Virginia (62-38) pushed the Bears up to a program-best No. 2 in both polls heading into a Homecoming contest versus Iowa State.

On a rain-soaked afternoon, Baylor built a 35-0 lead on the Cyclones in the second quarter and cruised to a 45-27 victory, but lost record-setting QB Seth Russell to a season-ending neck injury during the game.

With true freshman QB Jarrett Stidham at the helm, the Bears raced out to a 31-10 lead at Kansas State and then held on for a 31-24 triumph in Manhattan.

The following week, BU suffered its first-ever loss at McLane Stadium to No. 12/11/12 Oklahoma, 44-34. The defeat snapped a nation's-best 20-game home win streak. The Bears bounced back a week later to upset No. 4/4/6 Oklahoma State, 45-35, in Stillwater to halt an 11-game losing streak to the Cowboys on the road. With Stidham sidelined with a season-ending injury in the first half, third-string QB Chris Johnson accounted for three TDs to lead BU to victory.

With the injuries mounting, Baylor went on to lose its final two games of the regular season – first at TCU in double overtime, 28-21, in the midst of a frigid rain storm that limited the Bears to only one completed pass after halftime; and then at home to Texas, 23-17. With Johnson out of the game due to a concussion, the Bears switched to a "Wild Bear" offense in the second half and rallied from a 20-0 deficit to cut the margin to 20-17, but RB Johnny Jefferson's heave at the end of regulation fell short in a 23-17 loss.

Earning a school-record sixth-straight trip to a bowl game, the Bears faced No. 10/11/10 North Carolina in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando, Fla. Playing without Russell, Stidham, leading rusher Shock Linwood and leading receiver Coleman, Baylor rolled to a NCAA bowl-record 645 yards of rushing to upset the Tar Heels, 45-35. Jefferson was named the game's MVP after compiling a school-record 299 yards rushing.

The 2015 Baylor squad finished No. 1 nationally in total offense (616.2 ypg) and scoring (48.1), and ended the year ranked No. 13 by both AP and the coaches.

On the merits of a record-setting year, Coleman won the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver after catching 74 passes for 1,363 yards and 20 TDs in 12 games. The 20 TDs were the most in a single season in BU history, third-most in Big 12 history and ninth-most in NCAA history.

Individually, three Bears earned All-America honors, including Coleman, DT Andrew Billings and Outland Trophy finalist Spencer Drango, who was just the sixth two-time All-American in program history.

Billings, Coleman and Drango, along with CB Xavien Howard and LS Jimmy Landes, were all picked in May's NFL draft.

Under interim head coach Jim Grobe, Baylor got off to a 6-0 start in 2016 that included a 35-24 win over Oklahoma State and a 45-42 thriller over Iowa State on the road. That assured the Bears of a program-record seventh-straight bowl berth, with BU closing out a 7-6 season with a 31-12 win over Boise State at the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl at Chase Field in Phoenix, Ariz.

Freshman QB Zach Smith threw for 375 yards and three touchdowns in the bowl game victory, while receiver KD Cannon earned offensive MVP honors with a school bowl-record 14 catches for 226 yards and two touchdowns. Phil Bennett's defense forced three turnovers, recorded three sacks and kept the Broncos (10-3) out of the end zone until the last two minutes of the game.

Cannon, center Kyle Fuller, defensive end K.J. Smith and DB Orion Stewart earned first-team All-Big 12 honors, with Fuller being the Bears' only draft pick, taken by the Houston Texans in the seventh round.

On December 6, 2016, Matt Rhule was hired as the 27th football coach in Baylor history following a stellar four-year run as the coach at Temple University.

After an 0-8 start in 2017 that included four one-score losses, freshman QB Charlie Brewer threw for 315 yards and three touchdowns in his first start, leading the Bears to a 38-9 road win over Kansas. Kansas City native Ishmail Wainwright, who was 0-10 against KU in four seasons with the men's basketball team, caught a nine-yard TD pass from Brewer on the tight end's first reception.

While defensive tackle James Lynch was named a Freshman All-American by ESPN, Brewer and sophomore receiver Denzel Mims earned All-Big 12 honors. Mims had 61 catches for 1,087 yards and eight touchdowns to get a spot on the All-Big 12 second team, with Brewer named Co-Offensive Freshman of the Year after completing 68.2% of his passes and throwing for 1,562 yards.

Rhule's second season in Waco went much better, with Baylor tying for fifth in the Big 12 and picking up conference wins over Kansas (26-7), Kansas State (37-34), Oklahoma State (35-31) and Texas Tech (35-24). In the regular-season finale at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Brewer passed for 308 yards and three TDs and rushed for another in the win over the Red Raiders that clinched the Bears' eighth bowl bid in nine years.

Back in the Texas Bowl for the first time since ending its bowl drought in 2010, Baylor capped a 7-6 season with a thrilling 45-38 shootout win over Vanderbilt at NRG Stadium in a game that produced over 1,200 yards total offense.

Throwing for a Texas Bowl-record 384 yards and two touchdowns and adding a career-best 109 yards and one TD on the ground, Brewer earned MVP honors. Making his first start, running back Trestan Ebner had a combined 199 yards rushing and receiving and scored on a 34-yard run and 75-yard pass from Brewer.

One of four Division I transfers who sat out during the 2017 season, senior receiver Jalen Hurd earned Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year honors, hauling in 69 passes for 946 yards and four touchdowns. A third-round draft pick by the San Francisco 49ers, Hurd rushed for 2,638 yards in three seasons as a running back at Tennessee.

Two years removed from a one-win season, the Bears put together a magical 2019 season that goes down as one of the best in program history. Not only did Baylor match the most wins in school history (11-3), the Bears appeared in their first Big 12 Championship game and second-ever Sugar Bowl.

Named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, Defensive Lineman of the Year and a unanimous All-American, James Lynch broke the school records with 13.5 sacks for the season and 22.5 for his career. The two-time first-team All-Big 12 pick was also a Hendricks Award finalist, recording 41 total tackles, 19.5 tackles for loss, five pass deflections, three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two blocked kicks.

Matching the best start in program history, Baylor won its first nine games in climbing to as high as 10th in the coaches' Top 25. After beating three-straight in-state opponents in non-conference play, the Bears opened league play with a 23-21 win over Iowa State, when John Mayers hit a 38-yard field goal into the wind with 21 seconds left.

Becoming bowl-eligible, BU rolled over Kansas State, 31-12, and pulled out a 33-30 double-OT win over Texas Tech after Charlie Brewer led the Bears to a game-tying field goal on the last play of regulation. JaMycal Hasty ended it with a five-yard TD run in the second overtime period after hauling in an 18-yard catch.

Keeping things rolling, Baylor overcame another fourth-quarter deficit in a rare road win at Oklahoma State (45-27), then Bravvion Roy blocked a potential game-tying field goal that clinched a 17-14 win over West Virginia. It took a career-long 51-yard field goal by Mayers to tie it in regulation, but Mims caught two TD passes in a 29-23, three-OT win at TCU that stretched Baylor's winning streak to 11 games.

BU's fourth-quarter magic finally ran out in a 34-31 loss to the eighth-ranked Oklahoma Sooners, who trailed by three touchdowns at halftime. The Bears got a rematch in the Big 12 Championship three weeks later, but came up short again in a 30-23 overtime loss to OU with a potential spot in the College Football Playoffs on the line.

A valiant second-half comeback wasn't enough against fifth-ranked Georgia in the Sugar Bowl, with Baylor falling to the Bulldogs, 26-14. Before getting knocked out of the game with 8:52 left, Brewer threw for 211 yards and one touchdown and added a third-quarter TD run that at least gave the Bears a chance.

In addition to Lynch, DB Grayland Arnold was named a second-team All-American by Sports Illustrated and Rhule was the Big 12 and AFCA region coach of the year. Earning first-team all-league honors were Lynch, Roy, Mims and offensive tackle Sam Tecklenburg.

A total of 14 players were drafted or signed free-agent contracts, with Mims (2nd round, New York Jets), Lynch (4th round, Minnesota Vikings), Roy (6th round, Carolina Panthers) and linebacker Clay Johnston (7th round, Los Angeles Rams) giving the Bears multiple draft picks for the seventh time in 11 years.

Following the 2019 season, Rhule departed for the NFL as head coach for the Carolina Panthers and took the bulk of his staff with him, including offensive coordinator Jeff Nixon and defensive coordinator Phil Snow.

Fresh off winning a National Championship as defensive coordinator at LSU, Dave Aranda was hired as the program's 28th head football coach on Jan. 16, 2020. Considered one of the top defensive minds in the game, Aranda had also served as the DC at Wisconsin, Utah State, Hawaii and Delta State in a 24-year college coaching career that began at California Lutheran.

"Dave is a special person who loves football and his student-athletes, is highly intellectual and is a great mission fit for both Baylor Athletics and the University at large," Baylor VP and Director of Athletics Mack B. Rhoades IV said.

In one of the most difficult scenarios a first-year head coach has ever faced, Aranda didn't even have a spring training or summer offseason program because of the COVID-19 pandemic and had to do most of his preseason planning virtually. The Bears went through multiple virus-related stoppages and finished 2-7 in a conference-only schedule that included wins over Kansas (47-14) and K-State (32-31).

A second-team All-American as a kick returner, Trestan Ebner became the first player in the 25-year history of the Big 12 to score touchdowns on a run, a reception and a return in the same game, returning two kickoffs for TDs in the blowout win over Kansas. Charlie Brewer, the "Cardiac Kid," led three fourth-quarter scoring drives and twice brought the Bears back from nine-point deficits to beat KSU on John Mayers' 30-yard field goal as time expired.

Ebner and safety Jalen Pitre earned first-team All-Big 12 honors, while Arkansas State transfer defensive end William Bradley-King was selected in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Washington Football Team.

Year 2 of the Dave Aranda era will go down as the best in school history and one of the biggest one-year turnarounds in the long history of college football. The Bears (12-2) had the most single-season wins in school history, captured their third Big 12 title in nine years and won a New Year's Day bowl game for the first time in 65 years.

The feel-good story of Jalen Pitre, the lone Baylor commitment when Matt Rhule was hired in December 2016, became a much bigger story in 2021. Playing the hybrid safety/linebacker STAR position, Pitre was a consensus All-American and Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, recording 18.0 tackles for loss, 76 total tackles, three sacks, two interceptions and three fumble recoveries.

Arguably, though, the biggest difference was the offense's improvement under first-year coordinator Jeff Grimes. A balanced attack averaged 219.3 yards rushing (10th nationally) and 203.4 yards passing per game while allowing just 18 sacks in 14 games behind an experienced O-line that added grad transfer Jacob Gall and Grant Miller.

In its first real test of the year, Baylor knocked off a ranked opponent for the first time in almost six years, holding off 14th-ranked Iowa State, 31-29, at McLane Stadium. Trestan Ebner scored on a 98-yard kickoff return, set up another score with a 41-yard punt return and sealed the deal when he recovered an onside kick with 24 seconds left.

Oklahoma State handed BU its first loss of the season (24-14), but the Bears bounced back with wins over West Virginia (45-20), 19th-ranked BYU (38-24) and Texas (31-24) to go into the final month at 7-1 overall and 4-1 in conference. After stumbling in a 30-28 road loss at TCU, Baylor wouldn't lose again, closing the regular season with wins over No. 4 Oklahoma (27-14), Kansas State (20-10) and Texas Tech (27-24).

Back in the Big 12 Championship game for the second time in three years, the Bears made the most of their second chance. Baylor's defense intercepted All-Big 12 quarterback Spencer Sanders four times and came up with the defining play of the season, when former walk-on safety Jairon McVea stopped OSU running back Dezmon Jackson inches short of the goal line to preserve a 21-16 win. Redshirt freshman QB Blake Shapen completed his first 17 passes in earning Most Outstanding Player honors.

That salty defense was up to the task again versus No. 6 Ole Miss, recording a Sugar Bowl-record 10 sacks, scoring on a 96-yard interception return by Al Walcott and getting two picks by safety JT Woods in a 21-7 win to become the first Baylor team in school history to win 12 games.

While the offense sputtered most of the night, converted linebacker Abram Smith rushed for 172 yards on 25 carries and shattered Terrance Ganaway's single-season record with 1,601 yards rushing. Sidelined by a hamstring injury in the previous two games, junior QB Gerry Bohanon tossed a two-yard TD pass to Tyquan Thornton that gave the Bears a two-touchdown lead midway through the fourth quarter.

A finalist for National Coach of the Year, Aranda was named Big 12 Coach of the Year by the Associated Press. Pitre (Defensive POY), Ebner (Special Teams POY), Connor Galvin (Offensive Lineman of the Year) and sophomore nose tackle Siaki Ika (Defensive Newcomer of the Year) picked up individual honors from the league's coaches and earned first-team All-Big 12 honors along with linebacker Terrel Bernard.

Tying the program record for a seven-round draft, Baylor had six players picked in the 2022 NFL Draft. After a busy second day that saw Pitre (Houston Texans) and Thornton (New England Patriots) taken in the second round and Woods (L.A. Chargers) and Bernard (Buffalo Bills) picked in the third round, Ebner got selected in the sixth round by the Chicago Bears and the Bills took cornerback Kalon "Boogie" Barnes in the seventh.

ALL-TIME RESULTS

NOTE: The rankings indicated from 1936 through 2015 in all instances are at game time, based on The Associated Press poll. Baylor's ranking is listed first, the opponent's ranking second. Early season games from 1936 through 1949 have no dash because the first polls in those seasons were not taken until after the season began. From 1936 to 1960 and again from 1968 until 1988, the AP ranked the top 20 teams, from 1961 to 1967 the top 10 and since 1989, the top 25. The source for the weekly rankings from Oct. 19, 1936, through Jan. 3, 1984, was Football Rankings, College Teams in The Associated Press Poll, 1936-1984, compiled by Lowell R. Greunke (Jefferson, N.C., McFarland & Co., Inc., 1984).

BOWL HISTORY

1949 DIXIE BOWL

BAYLOR 20, WAKE FOREST 7

Jan. 1, 1949 • Legion Field • Birmingham, Ala.

Coach Bob Woodruff’s Baylor Bears won the first bowl appearance in the school’s history by defeating Wake Forest 20-7 in the second and final Dixie Bowl.

Wake Forest, although gaining 277 total yards compared to Baylor’s 212, fell behind 20-0 at halftime to the upstart Bears and could never seriously threaten the 6-3-2 victors. Bear defender George Sims recorded the game’s first turnover when he intercepted a Wake Forest pass on its first possession and returned it 52 yards to the Deacons’ eight-yard line.

Sammie Pierce, who averaged 13.1 yards a carry against the 6-3 Deacons, scored the first touchdown from a yard out and Jerry Mangrum scored from the same distance in the second quarter to give Baylor a 13-0 lead. The Bears increased the margin to 20-0 off a 68-yard drive, highlighted by Pierce’s 40-yard romp. Quarterback Ray Painter passed the final 12 yards to Harold Riley for the score. Hank Dickerson added his second PAT for the day.

All-American QB Adrian Burk completed five passes for 69 yards, with two completions going to Riley.

Jan. 1, 1952 • Orange Bowl Stadium • Miami, Fla.

Pepper Rodgers kicked a 22-yard field goal with three minutes remaining to give No. 5 Georgia Tech a 17-14 come-from-behind victory over No. 9 Baylor in the Orange Bowl

Tech scored 10 fourth quarter points on Rodgers’ effort and a Buck Martin touchdown reception, while holding Baylor scoreless to nip the 8-2-1 Bears. BU fullback Dick Parma scored the game’s first touchdown from a yard out.

After Tech knotted the score at seven, Baylor drove 63 yards, capped by Jerry Coody’s five-yard scoring blast, to give the Bears a 14-7 halftime margin. Coody was the team’s leading ground gainer during the regular season, picking up 570 yards on 125 carries.

But coach Bobby Dodd’s Tech squad used Rodgers’ and Martin’s last quarter heroics to take its comeback win.

Dec. 31, 1954 • Fairfield Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla.

Thirteenth-ranked Auburn scored five of the first six times it touched the football on its way to a 33-13 thrashing of No. 18 Baylor in the 1954 Gator Bowl.

The Tigers, who established three Gator Bowl records and tied another in the rout, outgained Baylor 476 to 239 in total yardage.

Baylor all-conference halfback Del Shofner fumbled the opening kickoff and the Tigers recovered on the BU 27-yard line. Five plays later, Auburn scored the game's first touchdown and led 7-0. Baylor tied the game by driving 63 yards in nine plays, the majority coming off a Billy Hooper pass to Charles Smith. Fullback Reuben Saage scored from a yard out and Smith kicked the conversion to tie the game at seven.

But before Baylor scored again, Auburn led 27-7. Fob James' 43-yard run broke a 7-7 tie and gave Auburn the lead for good with 9:20 left in the second quarter and Bobby Freeman tossed a six-yard scoring strike to Jimmy Long to push the Tigers' halftime advantage to 21-7. Joe Childress, the game's leading rusher with 134 yards, scored his second touchdown of the game on a three-yard run on AU's first drive of the second half to make the score 27-7 with 7:13 left.

Baylor All-America halfback L. G. Dupre butted his way for a 38-yard scoring play to cut the Tigers' lead to 27-13 with 4:25 to play in the third period. Dupre, the Bears' third leading rusher during the regular season, finished as his team's top rusher against the Tigers with 69 yards. ### 1957 SUGAR BOWL

NO. 11 BAYLOR 13, NO. 2 TENNESSEE 7

Jan. 1, 1957 • Tulane Stadium • New Orleans, La.

Reuben Saage recovered Tennessee All-America halfback Johnny Majors' fumble of a Del Shofner punt and No. 11 Baylor then drove 15 yards for the winning touchdown in the Bears' 13-7 upset over the undefeated and second-ranked Volunteers in the 23rd annual Sugar Bowl.

Bear quarterback Buddy Humphrey scored the winning touchdown on a one-yard sneak and Don Berry added the conversion for coach Sam Boyd's 9-2 Bears. Baylor scored first, despite being a one-touchdown underdog, when quarterback Bobby Jones threw a 12-yard scoring strike to Jerry Marcontell in the second quarter. But Majors, who averaged 5.1 yards per rush, while completing better than 60 percent of his passes and punting for a 42.3 yard average during the regular season, gave the Volunteers the lead in the third quarter by reaching pay dirt from a yard out. Sammy Burklow added the PAT and Tennessee led 7-6.

After the Volunteers held Baylor on its first fourth quarter possession, Shofner punted to the Tennessee eight. Majors returned the kick seven yards before coughing up the pigskin and Saage was there to make the big play for Baylor.

Shofner, running behind an offensive line headlined by All-American Bill Glass, finished with 88 rushing yards on 14 carries and also intercepted a Volunteer pass. For his play, Shofner, who scored 10 touchdowns during the regular season, was voted the game's outstanding player. Bobby Peters contributed 60 yards rushing and 54 yards in kickoff returns for Baylor while Saage added 39 rushing yards. Bear quarterbacks Humphrey, Bobby Jones and Doyle Traylor could only complete three passes, all going to end Marcontell.

1960 GATOR BOWL

NO. 18 FLORIDA 13, NO. 12 BAYLOR 12

Dec. 31, 1960 • Fairfield Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla.

Coach John Bridgers' pro-modeled Spread-T Baylor offense could muster only two touchdowns against a swarming Florida defense as the No. 18 Gators took a 13-12 decision in the 16th annual Gator Bowl.

On the Bears' first second quarter possession, a pitchout from quarterback Ronnie Stanley to All-America halfback Ronnie Bull was mishandled and Florida's Chet Collins recovered on the Baylor 20-yard line.

It took the Gators five plays to score and fullback Don Goodman plunged the final three yards for the tally. Bill Cash added the conversion and Florida led 7-0 with 8:42 remaining in the half. Coach Ray Graves' squad extended its lead to 13-0 later in the same stanza when Gator defender Ronnie Slack recovered a Stanley fumble in the end zone for a quick six points. Florida traveled 20 yards for its two scores while Baylor went 139 yards for the same results. Down 13-0 in the fourth quarter, the No. 12 Bears, who finished 8-3, put forth a furious surge that resulted in 12 points.

On the first play of the quarter, quarterback Bobby Play threw 11 yards to Ronnie Goodwin for the score, which capped a 71-yard, nine-play drive. With 1:01 remaining, Ply, who threw four touchdowns during the regular season, and Stanley put the Bears in position to score with three completed passes. Bull, Baylor's leading rusher and scorer, went the final three yards for the score. But, the two-point conversion attempt from Ply to Goodwin was juggled and dropped and the Gators had their hard-earned victory.

Ply established a new Gator Bowl record with 13 completions and teamed up with Goodwin (seven receptions) for five.

1961 GOTHAM BOWL

BAYLOR 24, NO. 10 UTAH STATE 9

Dec. 9, 1961 • The Polo Grounds • New York, N.Y.

Eight Utah State turnovers and outstanding performances by halfback Ronnie Bull and sophomore quarterback Don Trull led Baylor to a 24-9 victory over Utah State in the inaugural Gotham Bowl at the historic Polo Grounds.

Baylor recovered its first of five Utah State fumbles and went 45 yards to score the first time it had the ball. Bull, who had 86 all-purpose yards and was voted the game's Most Valuable Player, scooted 14 yards for the initial Bear touchdown.

In the second quarter, Carl Choate kicked a 22-yard field goal for Baylor and Trull added the third score on a quarterback sneak covering two yards. Trull, who passed for 116 yards against the nation's number two defensive unit, connected with Ted Plumb for a 38-yard fourth quarter touchdown pass to end Baylor's scoring.

Choate was perfect in three extra point tries and Bull and Plumb combined for seven pass receptions. Utah State, which entered the game with a 9-0-1 mark and a share of the Skyline Conference championship, was favored to beat coach John Bridgers' Bears, who finished with a 5-5 regular season slate.

Coached by John Ralston, the Aggies featured three standouts who later starred in professional football: All-America tackle Merlin Olsen, quarterback Bill Munson and place-kicker Jim Turner.

Many observers felt the game's highlight came at halftime when the New York City Sanitation Department Band performed in a driving snowstorm. As a souvenir of their trip to New York City, members of both teams were given shoe shine kits.

Dec. 31, 1963 • Rice Stadium • Houston, Texas

The fifth annual Bluebonnet Bowl at Rice Stadium saw Baylor All-America quarterback Don Trull finish his collegiate career in grand style in the Bears' 14-7 win over LSU.

Trull, voted the game's most outstanding back, completed 26 of 37 passes for 255 yards and both Baylor touchdowns. End James Ingram, the contest's most outstanding lineman, caught 11 of Trull's passes for 163 yards and seven- and 13-yard scoring strikes. The Bears totally dominated their opponent, running 79 plays to LSU's 37 and racking up 385 total yards compared to the Tigers' 108.

Dalton Hoffman was the leading rusher for both teams, gaining 70 yards for Baylor, which ended its season 8-3. Tom Davies kicked both Baylor conversions.

The Tigers scored first, moving 43 yards in seven plays in the first quarter. Bill Soefker went the final eight steps for LSU and the Tigers led 7-0.

Baylor scored its first touchdown with 13:10 remaining as Trull hit Ingram for the seven-yard strike. The Bears moved 68 yards in 10 plays for the score with Trull completing three passes. On their next possession, the Bears drove 70 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Four completed Trull attempts, two each to Lawrence Elkins and Ingram, highlighted the scoring march.

Baylor, which lost to Oregon State, Texas and Kentucky during the regular season, was led during the year by All-Americans Trull and Elkins, all-conference tackle Bobby Crenshaw and top rusher Hoffman.

1975 COTTON BOWL

NO. 7 PENN STATE 41, NO. 12 BAYLOR 20

Jan. 1, 1975 • Cotton Bowl Stadium • Dallas, Texas

Quarterback Tom Shuman established Cotton Bowl records in passing and total offense and flanker Jimmy Cefalo did likewise in receiving yards in No. 7 Penn State's 41-20 decision over No. 12 Baylor.

For the fifth time in their 10-victory 1974 season, the Lions came from behind to win. The victory spoiled Baylor's first appearance in the storied Dallas event, coming on the heels of the school's first Southwest Conference championship since 1924.

Baylor captured a 7-0 first quarter lead on Steve Beaird's four-yard blast with 41 seconds remaining in the opening period. A Matt Bahr 25-yard field goal closed the Bears' lead to 7-3 at intermission. After the Nittany Lions took their first lead off Tom Donchez' one-yard run, all-conference quarterback Neal Jeffrey put Baylor ahead 14-10 with a 35-yard scoring toss to end Ricky Thompson. Three touchdowns, two by Cefalo and one by Shuman, and another Bahr field goal gave Penn State a 34-14 lead with 3:32 remaining. But the Bears, who finished 8-4 for the year, refused to fold and with 14 seconds left reserve quarterback Mark Jackson teamed with Thompson for a 11-yard touchdown.

On the ensuing kickoff, David Hicks attempted an onside kick only to watch the Lions' Joe Jackson scoop up the loose pigskin and race 50 yards for another Penn State score with two seconds left. Baylor junior safety Ken Quesenberry, who had 12 tackles and one interception, was named the game's Most Outstanding Defensive Player.

NO. 19 BAYLOR 24, NO. 18 CLEMSON 18

Dec. 31, 1979 • Fulton County Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

Quarterbacks Mike Brannan and Mickey Elam passed for 86 yards each to spark the 19th-rated Baylor Bears to a 24-18 upset win over the 17th-ranked Clemson Tigers in Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium.

The victory vaulted coach Grant Teaff's Bears into 14th place in The Associated Press' final college football poll. The 8-4 Bruins were beaten during the regular season by Alabama, Houston, Arkansas and Texas, all of whom were ranked in the top 10 at kickoff.

With the Tigers leading 7-0, Brannan teamed with Bo Taylor on a three-yard touchdown toss to knot the score following Robert Bledsoe's extra point. The tally came eight plays after Baylor recorded its first of two blocked punts against Clemson kicker David Sims. The Bears forged ahead 14-7 with 12:20 left in the second quarter when Brannan, voted the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, connected with Robert Holt for a 24-yard scoring strike.

Baylor's final 10 points resulted from a Bledsoe 29-yard field goal and a scoring pass from Elam to Raymond Cockrell that covered seven yards. Senior defensive end Andrew Melontree, voted the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player and linebackers Doak Field and All-American Mike Singletary led a Baylor defense that held an 8-3 Clemson offensive unit to 67 yards rushing.

Elam and tailback Walter Abercrombie set a Baylor bowl record when the duo teamed for a 63-yard pass completion in the third quarter to set up Bledsoe's field goal.

1981 COTTON BOWL

NO. 9 ALABAMA 30, NO. 6 BAYLOR 2

Jan. 1, 1981 • Cotton Bowl Stadium • Dallas, Texas

Paul "Bear" Bryant's No. 9 Alabama Crimson Tide completely dominated No. 6 Baylor in the 45th annual Cotton Bowl en route to a 30-2 rout of the Southwest Conference champions.

The Bears, ranked as high as sixth nationally during the regular season, closed an outstanding 10-2 and Southwest Conference championship campaign by dropping their second Cotton Bowl game in as many tries.

Alabama, which closed a 10-2 year with the win, took advantage of four Baylor fumbles and also intercepted three Bear passes to roll up a 339-158 total yardage advantage.

Three Peter Kim field goals and scoring runs by Major Ogilvie, Don Jacobs and Mark Nix put the Crimson Tide on the scoreboard while a Tommy Tabor first quarter safety were the only points the Bears could muster. The league-leading Baylor offense netted 54 yards rushing, 18 by quarterback Jay Jeffrey. SWC rushing champion Walter Abercrombie was held to nine yards on eight attempts by a stout Alabama defense.

Fullback Dennis Gentry was the leading pass receiver in the game, grabbing five receptions while Robert Holt added three others. Also, Gerald McNeil accumulated 100 yards in kickoff and punt returns for the Bears. Tabor and all-conference linebacker Doak Field led the Baylor defensive charge with 15 stops each. All-America middle linebacker Mike Singletary, all-league safety Vann McElroy and linebacker Lester Ward each had 12 tackles for Baylor.

1983 BLUEBONNET BOWL

OKLAHOMA STATE 24, NO. 20 BAYLOR 14

Dec. 31, 1983 • the Astrodome • Houston, Texas

Oklahoma State raced to a 21-0 lead in the first half before finally holding off No. 20 Baylor, 24-14 in the 25th annual Bluebonnet Bowl at the Astrodome.

Aided by a roughing-the-passer call and fine running by Alfred Anderson and Broderick Sargent, Baylor drove 87 yards in eight plays for its first score. Cody Carlson hit All-American Gerald McNeil with a 12-yard TD strike.

Oklahoma State scored its final points of the night on a 44-yard field goal by Larry Roach after Jim Mueller's onside kick attempt failed. The Cowboys drove from midfield to Baylor's 27-yard line before settling for the field goal with 16 seconds left in the half.

OSU signal caller Rusty Hilger missed the second half after being knocked off by BU linebacker Robert Watters and was replaced by reserve Ike Jackson. Jackson moved OSU to the Baylor five early in the third quarter but Thomas Everett, Aaron Grant and Kevin Hancock led one of BU's best defensive stands of the year. Roach's field goal attempt was blocked by Ervin Randle.

Both of Baylor's interceptions came in the last period; Tom Muecke and Cody Carlson threw one each as the Bears hurried to catch up. McNeil took a 28-yard halfback option pass from Anderson and Marty Jimmerson kicked the PAT to cut OSU's lead to 10 with 5:07 remaining. Baylor's hopes were dashed for good when Muecke was trapped for a loss of five on fourth down with 1:10 remaining at the OSU 45.

BOWL HISTORY

1985 LIBERTY BOWL

BAYLOR 21, LSU 7

Dec. 27, 1985 • Liberty Bowl Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Baylor fashioned one of its finest bowl efforts ever in beating LSU 21-7 in the 27th Liberty Bowl Football Classic.

The Bears dominated virtually every phase of the game. They gained 489 yards total offense to the Tigers' 192. Baylor led in first downs (26-9), rushing yards (215-91), passing yards (274-101), yards per snap (5.4-3.3) and time of possession (37:14-22:46). The Baylor defense played so well the second half that LSU gained only 72 yards on 26 plays. In the third quarter the Tigers had 11 total-offense yards on nine plays.

LSU got on the board first with a 79-yard Norman Jefferson punt return with 5:17 remaining in the first quarter and that turned out to be the Tigers only fireworks of the cool, clear evening.

The Bears took the ensuing kickoff and marched 80 yards in seven plays to knot the score at seven. On a third and goal from the five, quarterback Cody Carlson hit a diving Matt Clark in the corner of the end zone. Terry Syler added the extra point.

Syler made it 10-7 with his 23-yard field goal with 5:36 left in the first half and upped the score to 13-7 with a 35-yarder early in the third quarter.

Baylor's final tally came when Carlson connected with John Simpson on a 15-yard scoring strike with 10:42 left to play. The junior quarterback, who was named the game's Most Valuable Player, then hit Clark for a two-point conversion, making the final score 21-7.

1986 BLUEBONNET BOWL

NO. 14 BAYLOR 21, COLORADO 9

Dec. 31, 1986 • Rice Stadium • Houston, Texas

No. 14 Baylor's defense, led by MVP Ray Berry, stymied Colorado's wishbone offense to key a 21-9 Bear win in the 28th annual Bluebonnet Bowl. The Bears limited the Big Eight runner-up Buffs to 194 total yards, 83 of which came on the ground. Berry, called a "one man wrecking crew" by sportswriters after the game, accounted for 12 tackles, three of which resulted in 12 yards in losses.

Colorado found out early what kind of day it would be for the Baylor defense. The Buffs managed only a field goal and 77 yards total offense in their first eight possessions through nearly three quarters of play. Meanwhile, Baylor's offense did what it had to do, scoring a touchdown in each of those first three quarters. The first Bear TD capped a 12-play, 64-yard drive in the first quarter. The drive was kept alive by a CU offside penalty when Baylor was in punt formation. The highlight was a 22-yard run off tackle by Derrick McAdoo down to the Colorado five. Four plays later, McAdoo, a senior from Houston, dove over from the one on a fourth-down play.

Baylor next hit pay dirt midway through the second stanza. It took only three plays to go eight yards after Keith Rose recovered an errant Colorado pitch.

QB Cody Carlson hit flanker Darnell Chase in the corner of the end zone on a two-yard scoring strike. Another turnover gobbled up by the BU defense set up Baylor's final score. Robert Watters sacked the Buff QB and Berry recovered on the 21. It took only four plays, one of which was a 17-yard shot from Carlson to Matt Clark, before McAdoo tied the BU school record with two TDs in a bowl game.

1991 COPPER BOWL

INDIANA 24, BAYLOR 0

Dec. 31, 1991 • Arizona Stadium • Tucson, Ariz.

Baylor watched two golden scoring opportunities slip through its hands while Indiana used a patient and balanced attack to grind out a 24-0 victory over the Bears in Copper Bowl III at Tucson, Ariz.

Indiana jumped to a 7-0 lead, largely on the rushing of All-American Vaughn Dunbar, who finished with 106 yards and the game's MVP honor. Late in the first quarter the Bears were driving nicely before the drive stalled at the Hoosier 21.

Lining up in field goal formation, Baylor opted for a fake pass from holder Kent Brentham to kicker Jeff Ireland. Ireland was totally uncovered on a pattern for the end zone, but the pass scraped off his fingertips.

That mishap seemed to set the tone for Baylor's 14th bowl game and first west of Waco. IU added a field goal after a long drive late in the first and just when it seemed like Baylor had a chance to regroup, the Hoosiers got the ball back with 2:37 remaining in the half and drove 80 yards in 10 plays to go up 17-0 at intermission.

The third quarter proved to be a defensive struggle until the Bears drove from their 22 to the IU six. Then, with BU having a chance to get back into the game, Robert Strait fumbled into the end zone after he and quarterback J.J. Joe never connected on a handoff.

The Hoosiers added another score to make it 24-0 at the end. Their final scoring march covered 60 yards in 12 plays and consumed 6:48. IU led in virtually every statistical category.

BOWL HISTORY

1992 JOHN HANCOCK BOWL

BAYLOR 20, NO. 22 ARIZONA 15

Dec. 31, 1992 • Sun Bowl Stadium • El Paso, Texas

The Grant Teaff era at Baylor ended in grand style as the Bears used big plays to hold off No. 22 Arizona 20-15 in the 1992 John Hancock Bowl. The Wildcats, who brought perhaps the nation's best defense into the game, outgained the Bears 418 yards to 249, but BU had TD passes of 61 and 69 yards and the defense had a brilliant goal line stand and twice held UA to field goals.

UA jumped to a 10-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Steve McLaughlin had to settle for a 22-yard field goal after Baylor's defense stopped five plays inside the Baylor six and George Malaulu scored on a quarterback draw from seven yards out. Baylor struck near the end of the half with a halfback pass from freshman Brandell Jackson to Melvin Bonner for a 61-yard TD with 2:37 to go. UA came back quickly to reach the BU two, but again the defense stiffened and allowed only a field goal.

It had been mostly Arizona through two quarters, but Baylor grabbed the lead for good on just the second play of the third quarter when quarterback J.J. Joe hit Bonner for a 69-yard scoring toss. The rest of the way rains became heavier and the contest turned into a defensive battle. The day's highlight came when Arizona moved the ball to the Baylor eight only to be stopped at the one after four attempts.

BU managed two field goals in the fourth quarter, a 32-yarder and 35-yarder, both by Trey Weir, and UA scored when the Bears took an intentional safety.

1994 ALAMO BOWL

WASHINGTON STATE 10, BAYLOR 3

Dec. 31, 1994 • The Alamodome • San Antonio, Texas

The second annual Alamo Bowl more than lived up to its billing as a match-up between Washington State's nationally-ranked defense and Baylor's high-scoring offense. In the end, the Cougar defense prevailed in a 10-3 thriller that wasn't decided until 30 seconds remained.

The Cougars scored the first time they got the ball and it proved to be the game's only TD. WSU went 91 yards in 13 plays as Kevin Hicks scored on a one-yard plunge up the middle. Baylor appeared to have stopped the drive after holding WSU on three quick downs, but a roughing the kicker call allowed Wazzu to retain possession.

WSU entered the game with the nation's No. 1 ranked defense, and played as expected. The Bear defenders more than held their own after allowing the early touchdown. With both defenses playing well, it turned into a game of field position and field goals. The next two drives by each team ended in punts. After taking the second punt the Bears drove down to the WSU 28 and attempted a 44-yard Jarvis Van Dyke FG which fell short. Baylor's next possession ended in the same result as a 47-yarder missed the mark. WSU ended the half with a 37-yard field goal by Tony Truant to go up 10-0.

The second half unfolded with more strong defensive football. Two more third quarter drives by each squad ended up in punts. Finally, with the final stanza about to get underway, the Bears got on the scoreboard. After Nikia Codie blocked a punt which landed at the Bear 25, Van Dyke hit a 36-yard field goal on a 13-play, 56-yard drive. With 3:57 left BU got the ball on the WSU 45. Three plays netted only a yard. Facing fourth-and-9, Watson then hit a diving Kalief Muhammad on a 33-yard pass to the 11. Three more plays lost a couple of yards.

On fourth down with 30 seconds left Watson's pass into the end zone was intercepted by Todd Jensen as WSU sealed the win.

2010 TEXAS BOWL

ILLINOIS 38, BAYLOR 14

Dec. 29, 2010 • Reliant stadium • Houston, Texas

Mikel Leshoure ran for 184 yards and three touchdowns as Illinois earned its first bowl victory since 1999, beating Baylor 38-14 in the Texas Bowl. The Illini spoiled the Bears' first bowl appearance in 16 seasons. Both teams finished at 7-6.

Leshoure had a 5-yard TD run in the second quarter, a 13-yard score in the third quarter and another 5-yard touchdown run in the fourth period. The performance gave him the school single-season rushing record with 1,697 yards.

The Illini built a 24-0 lead and Leshoure's last touchdown put the game out of reach.

Baylor's Robert Griffin III threw for 313 yards and a touchdown, but his two fumbles in the first half put the Bears behind.

Leshoure was chosen the most valuable player and wore a cowboy hat as he hoisted the trophy above his head after the game while the small but vocal group of Illinois fans cheered.

The Bears cut the lead to 24-14 when Griffin found a diving Kendall Wright on a 39-yard touchdown pass on fourth-and-14 early in the fourth quarter. But Illinois continued its dominance in the rushing game after that and extended its lead to 31-14 on Leshoure's last touchdown.

Illinois quarterback Nathan Scheelhaase got off to a sensational start, completing all of his 13 passes in the first half, and finished 18 of 23 for 242 yards. He scored on a 55-yard touchdown run with 41 seconds to play to make it 38-14.

BOWL HISTORY

2011 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

NO. 15 BAYLOR 67, WASHINGTON 56

Dec. 29, 2011 • Alamodome • San Antonio, Texas

A thrilling, back-and-forth, record-shattering Valero Alamo Bowl ended with Baylor pulling out an incredible 67-56 victory over Washington in the wildest shootout of the 2011 bowl season or any other in memory.

Heisman Trophy winner Robert Griffin III didn't dominate in his last college game – Baylor's rushing game did.

The game shattered the previous bowl record for points in a regulation game, which was 102 set in the 2001 GMAC Bowl between Marshall and East Carolina.

Baylor, which won its first bowl game since 1992, and Washington also set a bowl record for total offense in a game with 1,397 yards.

Baylor's Terrance Ganaway rushed for 200 yards and five touchdowns. His last was a 43-yard run with 2:28 left to seal Baylor's first 10-win season since 1980. Ganaway was awarded the offensive MVP honors for his efforts, while linebacker Elliot Coffey, who totaled 15 tackles, was named defensive MVP.

Griffin was 24 of 33 for 295 yards -- and his only touchdown throw came on the game's opening drive.

The announced attendance of 65,256 was the fifth-largest in the bowl's history.

2012 BRIDGEPOINT HOLIDAY BOWL

BAYLOR 49, NO. 17 UCLA 26

Dec. 27, 2012 • Qualcomm Stadium • San Diego, Calif.

By early in the second quarter, Baylor was well on its way to blitzing No. 17 UCLA and Nick Florence had supplanted Robert Griffin III as the Bears' season passing leader.

The Bears overwhelmed the Bruins 49-26 in the Bridgepoint Holiday Bowl as Florence threw for two scores and ran for another. Glasco Martin ran for three touchdowns.

Florence completed 10 of 13 passes for 188 yards, giving him 4,309 for the season to break RG3's school record of 4,293 set in his Heisman Trophy-winning 2011 season. Baylor won its final four games and five of six.

Lache Seastrunk rushed 16 times for 138 yards and one score for Baylor, which outgained UCLA 494-362.

Baylor's defense came up big, too. The Bears sacked Brett Hundley six times, including two by Chris McAllister, and shut down the Bruins' ground game limiting them to only 33 yards on 28 carries.

Baylor raced to a 21-0 lead by early in the second quarter on Martin's 4-yard run and Florence's TD passes of 8 yards to Antwan Goodley and 55 yards to Tevin Reese.

After a UCLA score, Baylor added two more touchdowns to put it out of reach at 35-7.

2014 TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL

NO. 15 UCF 52, NO. 6 BAYLOR 42

Jan. 1, 2014 • University of Phoenix Stadium • Glendale, Ariz.

No. 6-ranked Baylor, a 17-point favorite in the Fiesta Bowl at kickoff, never led against No. 15 Central Florida in a 52-42 loss at University of Phoenix Stadium.

The Bears rolled up 550 yards, but UCF had 556 and fewer mistakes.

The Knights scored touchdowns on their first two possessions. Baylor tied it at 28 with 10:18 left in the third quarter, but UCF outscored the Bears 24-14 from there in the highest-scoring Fiesta Bowl and second-highest BCS bowl ever.

The Bears were penalized 17 times for 135 yards to UCF's four for 40 yards.

Bryce Petty completed 30 of 46 passes for 356 yards and two touchdowns. The Bears' Lache Seastrunk rushed for 117 yards on 17 carries.

Baylor set the all-time NCAA record for most points in a 13-game season with 681 points.

Petty's career-high and program-record three rushing TDs by a QB were the most by any QB in the 2013-14 bowl season and set a Fiesta Bowl record.

Petty accounted for 20 total points, tied for the second-highest total by a QB in a bowl game since data started being kept in 1996 (24 by Young in 2005 Rose Bowl and 20 by Vince Young in 2006 National Championship).

2015 GOODYEAR COTTON BOWL

NO. 7 MICHIGAN STATE 42, NO. 4 BAYLOR 41

Jan. 1, 2015 • AT&T Stadium • Arlington, Texas

Connor Cook threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Keith Humphery with 17 seconds left to cap a three-touchdown, fourth-quarter comeback in No. 7 Michigan State's 42-41 victory over playoff-snubbed Baylor on New Year's Day in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl.

The Spartans (11-2) got the winning touchdown after Marcus Rush blocked a Baylor field goal with just more than a minute left.

When No. 4 Baylor (11-2) got the ball back for one last try, Bryce Petty was sacked on consecutive plays before Riley Bullough's clinching interception.

Petty completed 36 of 51 passes for a Cotton Bowl-record 550 yards and three touchdowns, two to speedy freshman KD Cannon and the other to 390-pound backup guard LaQuan McGowan that put Baylor up 41-21 late in the third quarter.

Jeremy Langford ran for 162 yards and three touchdowns for the Spartans, whose only losses were to playoff teams Oregon and Ohio State.

2015 RUSSELL ATHLETIC BOWL

NO. 18 BAYLOR 49, NO. 10 NORTH CAROLINA 38

Dec. 29, 2015 • Citrus Bowl Stadium • Orlando, Fla.

Even with several key pieces of the most productive offense in college football missing, Baylor and the creative system of Art Briles proved unstoppable.

Johnny Jefferson rushed for three touchdowns and a record 299 yards, and No. 18 Baylor ran past No. 10 North Carolina 49-38 in the Russell Athletic Bowl.

Despite missing two quarterbacks (Seth Russell-neck injury, Jarrett Stidham-broken ankle), the Biletnikoff Award winning receiver (Corey Coleman-hernia surgery), and a 1,000-yard running back (Shock Linwood-broken foot), the Bears' No. 1-ranked scoring offense stayed creative, pounding out 645 yards rushing and 756 total yards -- both records for this bowl.

Devin Chafin added 161 yards and a touchdown, and Terence Williams rushed for 97 yards and two touchdowns for the Bears.

Though sophomore Chris Johnson started the day at QB, five different players -- Johnson, receiver Lynx Hawthorne, and running backs Jefferson, Chafin, and Williams -- all took snaps from center for the Bears within the first two series. They continued to use the quintet in multiple Wildcat formations throughout the game.

2016 MOTEL 6 CACTUS BOWL

BAYLOR 31, BOISE STATE 12

Dec. 27, 2016 • Chase Field • Phoenix, Ariz.

Baylor saved its best for last. Putting together arguably its most complete game since last year's Russell Athletic Bowl victory over North Carolina, the Bears (7-6) steamrolled to a 31-12 rout of the Boise State Broncos Tuesday night in the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl.

Freshman quarterback Zach Smith threw for 375 yards and three touchdowns, offensive MVP KD Cannon hauled in a career-high and school bowl-record 14 passes for 226 yards and two touchdowns and running back Terence Williams recorded his fourth 100-yard game of the season with 103 yards on 25 totes.

But this one was about the defense. Phil Bennett's unit forced three turnovers, had four sacks and held the Broncos (10-3) out of the end zone until Brett Rypien hit Cedrick Wilson with a 28-yard TD pass with just 80 seconds left.

BOWL HISTORY

2018 ACADEMY SPORTS HOUSTON BOWL

BAYLOR 45, VANDERBILT 38

Dec. 27, 2018 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas

Two years after taking a leap of faith to join a Baylor football program that was trying to rise from the ashes, sophomores Charlie Brewer and Trestan Ebner led the Bears to an exhilarating 45-38 Texas Bowl victory over Vanderbilt Thursday night at NRG Stadium.

Voted the game MVP, Brewer hooked up with Ebner on a 75-yard TD strike and then Marques Jones for 52 yards in a crazy, back-and-forth game that went down to the wire.

In a game that produced over 1,200 yards combined, Baylor's defense came up with just enough stops to help the Bears pull out their third bowl win in the last four years and finish 7-6 in head coach Matt Rhule's second season.

Vanderbilt (6-7) got the ball back with one more shot after Jones' go-ahead score, but couldn't go anywhere in four downs. Baylor ran out the final 60 seconds and celebrated its third bowl win in four years and first win over an SEC opponent in 33 years.

2020 ALLSTATE SUGAR BOWL

NO. 5 GEORGIA 26, NO. 7 BAYLOR 14

Jan. 1, 2020 • Mercedes-Benz Superdome • New Orleans, La.

Outside the Baylor locker room, there were few if any people that thought the Bears would make it to the Superdome this year and play in the New Year's Day Sugar Bowl.

And there were probably even fewer that gave Baylor any chance of making a run at fifth-ranked Georgia after being shut out in the first half and trailing 19-0.

Instead of throwing in the towel, though, the Bears had a spirited second-half comeback with two third-quarter touchdowns and twice had the ball in the final quarter with a chance to make this a one-score game.

Ultimately, the Bulldogs (12-2) had enough to hold off the rally and survived for a 26-14 win before a crowd of 55,211 that left Baylor (11-3) short of that elusive school-record 12th win.

Junior QB Charlie Brewer threw a 12-yard touchdown pass to Denzel Mims on the opening drive of the second half and added a one-yard QB keeper that pulled the Bears within 26-14 with 4:10 left in the third quarter.

But, he was knocked out of the game and carted off the field after taking a vicious sideline hit with 8:52 left in the game.

Brewer bounced back from a frustrating first half for the offense to complete 24-of-41 for 211 yards and one touchdown and also scored his 11th rushing TD of the season and 18th of his career. That one rushing touchdown matched the total Georgia's defense had given up all season.

2022 ALLSTATE SUGAR BOWL

NO. 6 BAYLOR 21, NO. 8 MISSISSIPPI 7

Jan. 1, 2022 • Caesars Superdome • New Orleans, La.

History made.

Baylor's defense recorded a Sugar Bowl-record 10 sacks, got a 96-yard interception return from Al Walcott and two picks by JT Woods as the sixth-ranked Bears (12-2) defeated No. 8 Ole Miss, 21-7, in the 88th Allstate Sugar Bowl and became the first team in school history to win 12 games.

While the offense sputtered most of the night, Abram Smith rushed for 172 yards on 25 carries and shattered Terrance Ganaway's single-season record with 1,601 yards. He also picked up a big first down on a six-yard reception that set up Gerry Bohanon's two-yard TD pass to Tyquan Thornton that gave Baylor the two-touchdown lead with 7:24 left in the game.

Ole Miss (10-3) lost quarterback Matt Corral late in the first quarter when he had to be helped off the field with a leg injury after a Cole Maxwell sack. Luke Altmeyer went the rest of the way for the Rebels, completing 15 of 29 passes for 174 yards and a touchdown, but he was also sacked eight times and picked off twice.

Terrel Bernard, the Sugar Bowl game MVP, finished with a school record-tying 20 tackles, two sacks and a pass breakup.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

MORLEY JENNINGS

HEAD COACH
1973 INDUCTEE

Morley Jennings spent 15 seasons as the Bears' head football coach, compiling a record of 83-60-6 from 1926-40. Ten of Jennings' Baylor teams had winning seasons, including the 1935 squad which went 8-3. From 1937-39 his Bears went 21-8-1. Among the great players he coached were Barton Koch, Sam Boyd, Billy Patterson and Jack Russell.

BARTON KOCH

LINEMAN

Barton "Botchey" Koch was considered by every football expert to be the greatest lineman of his era. He played in the days of one-platoon football and was called unstoppable both ways. In his senior season of 1930, Koch made a huge breakthrough for the Southwest Conference by becoming the league's first consensus All-American. He was elected to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1967.

BILL GLASS

OFFENSIVE GUARD
1985 INDUCTEE

Bill Glass was a unanimous consensus All-American guard on one of Baylor's greatest teams. As a senior in 1956, he helped the Bears to a 9-2 record and a 13-7 Sugar Bowl victory over previously undefeated Tennessee. Glass was voted the Houston Post's 1956 SWC Most Valuable Player. After a successful NFL playing career, he became one of the nation's most noted evangelists. Glass was a 1987 Texas Sports Hall of Fame inductee.

JAMES RAY SMITH

OFFENSIVE TACKLE
1987 INDUCTEE

James Ray Smith won All-American honors from his tackle spot for the Bears in both 1953 and 1954. His senior year the Bears went 7-4 and played Auburn in the Gator Bowl. After a long career in the NFL, Smith remained active in college football, having served as president of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association. He was selected as a 2004 Cleveland Browns Legend.

LAWRENCE ELKINS

FLANKER
1993 INDUCTEE

In an era when running was considered the only way to pattern an offense, Baylor flanker Lawrence Elkins turned college football upside-down as the outstanding receiver in coach John Bridgers' pro-style attack. The first two-time consensus All-American (1963-64) in school history still shares Baylor's single-game record for receptions with 12, which he set against Texas in 1963. In 1963, he also established a then-NCAA record with 70 catches for 873 yards and helped the Bears defeat LSU in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

MIKE SINGLETARY

LINEBACKER

Singletery was the greatest middle linebacker in his era and arguably Baylor's finest football player ever. A three-time consensus All-SWC pick and two-time consensus All-American, Singletery also made the 1970-95 All-Quarter Century All-American Team. # ALL-AMERICANS

NOTE: In 1950, the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau (the NCAA's service bureau) compiled the first official comprehensive roster of all-time All-Americans. The compilation of the All-American roster was supervised by a panel of analysts working in large part with the historical records contained in the files of the Dr. Baker Football Information Service. The NCAA's roster consists of only those players who were first-team selections on one or more of the All-America teams that were selected for the national audience and received nationwide circulation. Not included in the NCAA's list are the thousands of players who received All-America mention on second or third teams, nor the numerous others who were selected by newspapers or agencies with circulations that were not primarily national and with viewpoints, therefore, that were not normally nationwide in scope.

STADIUM HISTORIES

The 2022 campaign marks the ninth season at McLane Stadium, Baylor's state-of-the-art home on the banks of the Brazos River. The 45,140-seat stadium has welcomed Baylor University football and a variety of music, sports, family and lifestyle events in its brief history. BU provided the exclamation point on the debut season by winning a second-straight Big 12 title over Kansas State, 38-27.

The Bears spent the previous 64 seasons at Floyd Casey Stadium, closing "The Case" out in style with a 30-10 victory over Texas that clinched Baylor's first-ever Big 12 Football Championship.

The Baylor Board of Regents voted on July 19, 2012, to move forward with the construction of a $266 million riverfront stadium. The 15-story McLane Stadium project is expected to help stimulate riverfront development, revitalize downtown Waco and bring jobs and economic development to the region.

The vote by Baylor Regents followed very favorable discussion and enthusiastic public comment at a meeting of the Waco City Council. At that meeting, the Council voted unanimously in support of a $35 million public contribution which was endorsed without dissent earlier this month by the downtown Tax Increment Financing (TIF) Zone board. The Council affirmed that vote in early August 2012. The TIF funds covered a portion of public infrastructure around the stadium, such as roads, construction of a pedestrian bridge to provide access across the Brazos River, development of a new marina, the relocation of sewer and electric transmission lines, and water, sewer and drainage facilities.

McLane Stadium was built on a 93-acre site at the intersection of Interstate 35, one of the nation's busiest highways, and the Brazos River, the longest waterway in the state of Texas. The stadium has the flexibility to expand to 55,000, and features a bridge crossing the Brazos connecting the stadium to the campus.

The contractor for the McLane Stadium project was a partnership between Austin Commercial-Flintco LLC. The companies have worked on such Big 12 football facilities as Oklahoma State's Boone Pickens Stadium, Oklahoma's Gaylord Family Memorial Stadium and TCU's Amon G. Carter Stadium. The architect for the project was Kansas City, Mo.-based Populous, which has designed several stadiums, including Yankee Stadium and the football stadium at the University of Minnesota.

The 2013 season was Baylor's 64th and final year of football at the 50,000-seat Floyd Casey Stadium. BU closed its run at the facility by winning its first Big 12 championship with a 30-10 victory over No. 23 Texas in the final game of the regular season.

Originally named Baylor Stadium, the structure was built in 1950 after a bond sales program raised $1.5 million for construction costs. The first game played in the new stadium was Sept. 30, 1950, a 34-7 Baylor victory over Houston.

In 1989, the stadium was renamed Floyd Casey Stadium after long-time University supporter and trustee Carl B. Casey and his wife Thelma contributed $5 million of an $8 million renovation project in honor of his father Floyd (the name change was officially announced at halftime of the 1988 Homecoming game).

Prior to the building of Baylor Stadium in 1950, several playing sites were used by the Bears. Baylor's first football squad took the field in 1899, but no records are available to prove where it played. Old newspaper clippings and yearbook articles only indicate the first three seasons were played on an extremely rough field close to the school.

From 1902 to 1925, with the exception of 1906 when football was banned on campus because it was deemed too violent, the Bears played most of their games at Carroll Field, an on-campus facility (an unknown number of games were also played at the old Cotton Palace during this period).

The Bears played at the Cotton Palace from 1926-29 before returning to Carroll Field from 1930-35. The team moved off the main campus for good in 1936 when it began calling the newly built Waco Stadium home.

Waco Stadium was renamed Municipal Stadium in 1942, and it was where Baylor played through 1949 except for a break from 1943-44 because of the war effort.
